

BOY HANGS SELF WHILE SWINGING, "JUST FOR FUN"

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)
Crawfordsville, Ind., October 17.—John F. Parker, 14, of Linden, accidentally hanged himself in two por-ties in a doorway at his home while swinging "just for fun."

No one saw the tragedy, his lifeless body being found a few moments afterwards by his sister, Helen, age 15.
A small rug that was on the floor, it is thought, slid out from under his feet while he was performing some stunts, causing the drapes to be wrapped around his neck and under his chin in such a way as to strangle him.

Temporary Insanity Plea Is Hope of George Remus

GEORGE REMUS.

Cincinnati, Ohio, October 17.—(AP)—Temporary insanity will be George Remus' plea for acquittal of a charge of first-degree murder for shooting to death his wife, Mrs. Imogene Holmes Remus, here on October 6.
Attorney Charles Elston, representing Remus, announced today that he would file a plea of temporary insanity with Judge Chester R. Shook tomorrow.
The time limit for filing the plea was set by Judge Shook today when he overruled a petition filed earlier by Elston attacking the present Ohio statute as "unconstitutional" and requesting court permission to make an insanity plea when the case is called for trial on November 14.
Judge Shook said he would set October 31 as the date for hearing an insanity plea if the plea was filed by Attorney Elston by noon tomorrow.
Attorney Elston argued that the Ohio statute governing an insanity plea was in conflict with articles of the constitution of the United States.

Judge Shook said he had opinions to the effect that the statute was constitutional.
Remus shot his wife to death in Eden park here an hour before their divorce suits were to be heard in domestic relations court. He charged that his wife and Franklin L. Dodge, Jr., former prohibition agent, had conspired to rob him of his fortune, and that Mrs. Remus sought to divorce him to marry Dodge. To substantiate his plea of temporary insanity, Remus will seek depositions which he told Judge Shook would prove that Dodge and Mrs. Remus had conspired against his life and hired gunmen to kill him.
Elston's petition regarding the insanity plea was submitted today after there had been a lengthy argument between the state and defense in court Saturday over the correct interpretation of the Ohio statute.
The state did not require an insanity plea to be entered until the case came to trial, and refused to enter the plea when Remus pleaded "not guilty" Saturday.

3 WOMEN QUALIFY AS OIL PLOT JURORS

and that he had a temperature of 101 degrees. At mid-afternoon he called for water and took some medicine from a glass. His wife and two daughters, all in black, were among the spectators. Fall's attorneys said Mrs. Fall had left a sanitarium in Los Angeles to come here for the trial.
Sinclair appeared carefully dressed as usual, in a dark business suit, with a tan soft-collared shirt and a fancy silk handkerchief in his breast pocket. His aged mother sat with Mrs. Fall and his wife, in black with a string of brilliants around her neck, was present.

Did Not Talk.
Fall and Sinclair sat in the defendants' seats separated by two lawyers. They did not talk to each other. Sinclair sat near the jury box and studied the faces of the prospective jurors as they were questioned, frequently bending over to make suggestions to his attorneys.

The defense counsel table was studded with the most able lawyers that generous fees can hire. Chief counsel for Sinclair was Major W. Littleton, famous New York lawyer, a stout, ruddy-faced little man who watched proceedings closely today but took no part in them. Examination of the jurors was left to Sinclair's local lawyer, George P. Hoover, one of the leaders of the bar here, and to William E. Leahy, Fall's local attorney, an alert young man with a pleasant brogue. Mark Thompson, a tall westerner, is also representing Fall.
The government was represented by its special counsel Owen J. Roberts, Philadelphia lawyer, and former Senator Adler Doremus, Ohio. Major Peyton Gordon, local district attorney, handled the questioning of the jurors for the government.
Justice Frederick L. Siddons, presiding, was formerly a lawyer here and appointed to the bench by Wilson.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Makes One Look Younger

Men and women who used to be called Grandpa and Grandma are now setting the styles by darkening their gray hair at home.

For instance, J. A. McCrea, a well-known Californian, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture in five minutes that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. Merely take a half-pint of water, add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1-4 ounce of glycerine.
These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at trifling cost. Apply to the hair twice weekly with a comb. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and will not rub off."—(adv.)

When You Catch Cold Rub On Musterole

Musterole is easy to apply and works right away. It not only cures cold from turning into "flu" or pneumonia. It does all the good work of grandmother's mustard plaster.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made of oil of mustard and other home simples. It is recommended by many doctors and nurses. Try Musterole for sore throat, cold on the chest, rheumatism, lumbago, pleurisy, stiff neck, bronchitis, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back and joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of all sorts.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Better than a mustard plaster

He is a specialist in evidence and teaches that subject in law classes here.
Crowds filled the corridors of the courthouse, but less than 50 spectators could be seated in the room after veniremen, relatives of the defendants, correspondents and attendants had been admitted. Many stood in corridors looking over the court room windows pointing in toward the noted defendants.

Defense Questions.
The defense in its questioning of jurors placed most emphasis on whether or not they had read newspaper accounts of the oil case and whether they had formed opinions from such reading. Sinclair's lawyer repeatedly asked whether they had read articles in the Washington Daily News, a Scripps Howard newspaper, and once got in the observation that these articles might prejudice the case, a statement to which government counsel objected.
The government asked all prospective jurors whether they were biased against circumstantial evidence, indicating that the prosecution had given up hope of filing the case in the direct evidence regarding the Continental Trading company, which was declared by the supreme court to have been created for some illegitimate purpose. Liberty bonds purchased with its profits having been traced to Fall.

Blackmer Missing.
Owen J. Roberts, representing the government, asked the court to all H. M. Blackmer, former Denver oil man, as a witness. He was wanted for direct testimony regarding the Continental deal. He went to Europe before the Teapot Dome civil suit and refused to return when a subpoena for the present trial was served on him.

When he did not answer to his name, former Governor Nathan L. Miller, of New York, rose and said he had been asked to represent Blackmer and stated to tell why his client was not present. The government objected and Roberts explained later that he merely wanted the record to show that Blackmer had not answered the summons. This, he said, is to be used as evidence in a future attempt to seize $100,000 of Blackmer's property as provided by a law recently passed by the senate. Miller explained privately that Blackmer regards this law and the subpoena as unconstitutional and is not appearing for that reason.

Opening Skirmish.
The defense's repeated questioning as to whether prospective jurors had formed an opinion from newspaper reports finally caused Major Gordon of the government to object. He read decisions saying that in all important cases, newspaper print reports and that intelligent citizens cannot be expected not to have read them and formed opinions and that this should not disqualify them provided they were willing to hear the evidence with an open mind.

"We are entitled to try," is case by a fair and impartial jury," George P. Hoover, Sinclair's attorney, declared in reply, "by jurors who go into the box with their minds open and who will not be influenced by opinions formed on newspaper reading."

The prospective juror who precipitated this argument had said he had a fixed opinion which he would take into consideration in weighing the evidence. The court sustained the defense.

obviating the necessity for federal intervention into the business affairs. The chamber administration has now placed its outline of the program of organized business before the directors. They in turn will refer it tomorrow morning to a completed Wednesday morning to a final meeting of the board to complete determination of questions of chamber policy in legislative and economic affairs.

The tax reduction phase of President Pierson's recommendation for a chamber program appeared to catch the imagination of the rank and file of the councilors.
A sufficient majority voiced agreement with Pierson's corporation tax reduction and excise and estate tax repeals to indicate that this will become the settled policy of the chamber when the meeting finally is decided by referendum following this conference.

DIVORCE IS SOUGHT FROM RUBY RAY, STATE PRISONER

Petition was filed in Fulton superior court Monday by James G. Ray, of a Marietta street address, for divorce from Ruby Ray. This action provides another chapter in the story of a crime which stirred all Atlanta and Georgia.

Ruby Ray was convicted in 1925 as being an accomplice in the murder of W. H. Cheek, Peachtree road grocer, and is now serving a sentence of from five to six years on the state farm at Milledgeville. Mel M. Gore, Rutledge barber, was executed for the crime, and Theo Berry was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. The woman is alleged to have been the sweetheart of Jack Wilson, who is said to have fired the fatal shot, but Wilson has never been apprehended.
Ray petitioned the court to grant the divorce on the grounds that his wife had been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. The two were married December 22, 1923, and separated August 1, 1925, it was stated in the petition.

Sound Marketing Has Aided Sale of Melons, Speaker Says

Athens, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—How Georgia has doubled its shipments of watermelons in the last seven years and trebled the total returns was told to farmers over the state today by J. W. Firor, state marketing agent at the State College of Agriculture. Firor used the college's radio to give his message on the watermelon industry in the state.
"Georgia has doubled her shipments of watermelons in the last seven years and with it the total returns have trebled," he said. "Waste was eliminated in distribution through careful standardization. The good melons did not have to pay the freight and marketing charges on the poor melons. This reduced the prices to the consumers and created new demand. The increase in consumer demand stimulated competitive buying. Competitive buying increased the prices at the shipping points in Georgia."
"Sound marketing practices intelligently applied by cooperative marketing and independent distributors has expanded one Georgia industry without breaking the producers," he concluded.

fore the grand jury investigating the flogging of Arthur Hitt, a negro farmer, and John Bolton and Dan Mitchell.

W. J. Worthington, prominent Birmingham attorney, probably is the outstanding defendant among those accused. Worthington was specifically charged by the grand jury with flogging and terrorizing Hitt into selling the farm on which he lived for a small sum.

Nine other men are under indictment for bribery and kidnaping in connection with the lashing of the three men.
Meanwhile, Sheriff Tatum, of Crenshaw county, was holding 28 remaining warrants for persons indicted for complicity in 20 or more cases of masked violence by a special grand jury at Luverne Saturday.

Seventeen persons were arrested last night and gave bonds totaling $33,000 after their indictment and arrest. The Crenshaw grand jury in reporting its investigation into "barbaric conditions" in the county, made a scathing denunciation of Ku Klux Klan leaders in Alabama and returned 102 indictments against 45 persons for masked violence.

LEGIONNAIRE DIES IN HOTEL IN PARIS

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Paris, October 17.—Dr. Herbert H. Connelley, of Paterson, N. J., who came to Paris with the American Legion convention, was found dead in his hotel room today, following his return from Brussels yesterday. Police at first believed he was suicide but physicians established that the death was caused by heart trouble.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the best healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. More refreshing than any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist—(adv.)

"Gimme-a-Sentence" Game Growing in Popularity

PUNSTERS STRUT THEIR STUFF ON ELABORATE SCALE

BY PAUL STEVENSON.
One of these "Gimme-a-Sentence" games is like hitting a tar baby—when you once hit it you can't get loose. Started a little more than a week ago, the game has reached huge proportions and some hundred or more letters are submitted every day.
Abie Cohen, Station C, Box 51, scores first today. He uses the word "statue" with what he thinks is admirable effect as follows: "When I came home last night papa yelled down the stairs 'Statue Abie!'"
Mrs. W. C. Clary, of Harlem, Ga., submits the following with "tolerant" as the word: "Everything was to have been kept secret but she 'tolerant'."
Using the word "coincide," Patrolman H. O. Hambrick sent the following: "Ah, I can now coincide," the burglar said as the lock came open."
Pearl H. Atlanta, contributes the following: "A stranger from Jessup contributes the following with "Adam" as the word: "The Volstead law may be all right but it is not popular by Adam sight."

Which ought to hold them for the day.

MEANS' PAROLE IS RECOMMENDED

Washington, October 17.—(P)—Gaston B. Means, who is serving a sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary on charges of bribery has been recommended for parole by the parole board.

Means, who formerly was a department of justice agent and figured prominently in the senate investigation of Harry M. Daugherty's administration of the department is rounding out a second two-year prison term to which he was sentenced in New York. He has been eligible for parole for some time.

In the first case Means was convicted of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law in connection with whisky withdrawals.

Later a jury found him guilty of conspiring to bribe government officials. It was charged that he, with others, sought funds from officials of two business concerns, for use in preventing prosecution of the companies on charges of having used the mails to defraud.

On completing his first prison term at Atlanta Means immediately began serving his second.

In addition to the prison sentences Means was fined $10,000 on each of the two counts on which he was convicted. Under the law he would be required to pay the $20,000 before the expiration of his term in June, 1928, or resort to exemptions under the poor law.

If his parole is approved and he does not pay the fine and resort to the exemption privilege of taking a "pauper's oath" he would be required to remain in prison for 30 days on each count after approval of his parole.

ABOLITION OF ALL TARIFFS SOUGHT

BY HENRY WOOD.

Geneva, October 17.—(United News.)—Thirty-two nations, including the United States, met here today under the auspices of the League of Nations in an international conference looking toward the abolition of all export and import restrictions.

Hugh Wilson, the United States delegate, told the conference that "the entire world is suffering from trade restrictions, and pledged cooperation of the United States in finding a solution to the international trade problem."

Former Premier Colijn, of Holland, president of the conference, in the opening address said: "The abolition of restrictions will benefit every member of the international community, and the success of the conference will render effective the principles of economic solidarity and contribute to the maintenance of world peace."

The conference is the first serious step taken toward carrying out the resolutions and recommendations of the league's international economic conference of last May, by which league supporters hope to get the world back into its normal economic stride for the first time since the end of the war.

Virtually the only great nation not participating is Russia. Foreign Minister Tchicherin having declined the league's invitation to attend the conference in May.

The United States, represented by its minister to Switzerland, and Egypt are the only two nonmembers of the league in the conference.

Essentially, the conference is a diplomatic one, as its fundamental object is the launching of an international convention abolishing import and export restrictions. All the delegates were asked to have plenipotentiary powers, not only for the negotiations, but for the actual signing of a treaty.

With this conference the league hopes to wipe out one of the last remaining obstacles to liberty of trade which grew out of the war.

BROTHER OF GOMEZ KILLED BY FEDERALS

Mexico City, October 17.—(United News.)—While General Arnulfo Gomez, leader of the recent revolution, has eluded three columns of federal troops for nine days and may have escaped from the country, his brother, former Deputy Margarito Gomez, was killed in action against federal troops.

General Jose Alvarez, presidential spokesman, made this announcement tonight in connection with giving details of a battle at Zacualpan, state of Mexico, in which 30 rebels were killed, including Gomez's brother and Benjamin Mendosa, leader of the band. "Gomez may be hiding like a rat in the mountains," Alvarez said, admitting the possibility that the rebel general may have reached the coast and gotten out of the country by an oil tanker.

LONDON FINANCIAL LEADERS PEEVED AT ENGLISH BANK

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

London, October 17.—The financiers of the city of London are much annoyed at the Bank of England, and especially Governor Montagu Norman, over the appointment of an American member to the board of the Polish state bank, in connection with the flotation of the new Polish loan. Governor Norman is blamed for surrendering the financial leadership of the world to Governor Benjamin Strong of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and the Polish move is taken as symptomatic of the growing tendency of continental countries to shake off the fetters of the Bank of England and seek loans in the best market. The big five British banks also are blamed for excessive conservatism in refusing to take a share of the Polish loan, which is declared to be a fair investment.

YAKUIS ARE KILLED BY MEXICAN TROOPS

Nogales, Ariz., October 17.—(AP)—Advices to the Nogales Herald today reported eight Yaqui Indians killed in a bank of 40 which refused to join the tribe in surrendering to the government, were killed and many others wounded yesterday in a battle between troops and Indians at Cruz de Piedras, Sonora, Mexico.

Soldiers have been trailing the Yaqui band since October 7, when Alfonso de la Huerta, former military chief, was killed in a skirmish south of here while attempting to get into touch with the Yaquis.

General Pablo Macias, commandant of Sonora, today said the engagement at Cruz de Piedras marked the end of Yaqui power in northern Mexico.

Beautiful Tributes Are Paid Mrs. Mary B. Connally, As Beloved Atlanta Pioneer Is Laid to Final Rest

Some idea of the tribute paid by Atlantans to Mrs. Mary Brown Connally at her funeral Monday afternoon can be gained from the above views. At top is the scene at the grave in the family plot in Oakland cemetery, just before all that was mortal of Atlanta's beloved pioneer was lowered to its last resting place. Below are seen a few of the floral offerings which overwhelmed her home during the day, piled high above the coffin in the Second Baptist church, which was filled to capacity as the Rev. Carter Helm Jones paid glowing tribute to her life. Mrs. Connally, in a recent photograph by Stephenson, is shown at the left. Other photographs by Kenneth Rogers, staff photographer.

While her lifeless body lay in a casket banked on all sides with one of the most elaborate collections of floral offerings ever seen in Atlanta, a tribute to her wonderful character and her life of usefulness, and with the spacious auditorium of the Second Baptist church packed with friends mourning her loss, final rites for Mrs. Mary Brown Connally, who died suddenly late Saturday afternoon at her home "The Homestead," on Ashby street in West End, were held Monday afternoon.

The Rev. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the Second Baptist church, officiated and interment followed in the family plot in Oakland cemetery.

Palbearers were Frederick J. Paxson, A. D. Adair, Robert E. Harvey, Joseph E. Brown, Elijah A. Brown, George M. Brown, Jr., Luther Z. Rosser, Joseph E. Boston, Dr. J. D. Cromer and Dr. M. L. Brittain. Deacons and members of the executive committee of the Second Baptist church, members of the Uncle Remus Memorial association, members of the board of trustees of the Georgia Baptist Orphans' home, the Service Station, the Atlanta Ladies' Memorial association and the Atlanta Woman's club served as an honorary escort.

In the passing of Mrs. Connally, Atlanta lost one of its most respected and beloved women and the various women's organizations throughout the city are deprived of one of their most zealous leaders and workers. Mrs. Connally devoted her entire life to the help of others and for years she daily visited various hospitals in the city, distributing flowers and helping the sick bear their afflictions. No finer tribute to a departed member or more comforting words to her many relatives and friends could have been paid than those spoken by the Rev. Carter Helm Jones, Mrs. Connally's pastor for the past few years.

Death came to Mrs. Connally suddenly late Saturday afternoon at The Homestead, the family estate in West End, from an acute heart attack while she was in her beautiful flower garden picking some of the best to be used for decorations at a social function. Medical aid was summoned immediately but Mrs. Connally passed away before any physician could reach her side.

Life Conserved to Others. Mrs. Connally was probably the most universally beloved woman in the state, because of her beautiful life, consecrated to the service of others. She was a life member of Atlanta Woman's club, the Y. W. C. A. and the Grady Hospital Aid association. She was also a life member of the Georgia Baptist Orphans' home and served as secretary of the board of trustees of the home for more than a quarter of a century. She was a former state vice president of the Daughters of 1812 and at the time of her death was vice president of the Uncle Remus Memorial association. She was a former vice president of the Atlanta chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Georgia U. S. D. of 1812, and was a member of the Colonial Dames.

She was the daughter of Joseph Emerson Brown, Georgia's famous "war governor," and a sister of Joseph M. Brown, another of Georgia's governors.

Mrs. Connally is survived by her husband, Dr. E. L. Connally, who has been critically ill for the past several months; three daughters, Mrs. John S. Spaulding, Mrs. H. Warner Martin and Mrs. Hal Hentz, and a son, Thomas W. Connally. H. M. Patterson & Son were in charge of arrangements.

AMBASSADOR TELLEZ LEAVES FOR MEXICO

Washington, October 17.—(P)—Ambassador Tellez, of Mexico, left here tonight for Mexico City, where he says he will attend to urgent personal affairs.

While denying that his trip is to be official, it is believed here that the ambassador will take advantage of the opportunity to confer with officials of his government. His leaving closely coincides with the expected departure of Dwight W. Morrow, newly appointed United States ambassador to Mexico, who is expected to leave Washington for his post within a few days.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIAN PRESIDENT IS ILL

Peculiar Facts And Statistics Of Circus Life

Ever want to ask a lot of questions of somebody or other when you were at the circus? Things that the program didn't tell anything about? An agent ahead of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus came to town yesterday to say that it is to exhibit here Wednesday, October 26.

He was asked to jot down some odd facts about the big show. Here they are:

Travels on 100 railroad cars, made up into four trains.

Out of 150 places visited in a season less than 20 are played for more than one day.

Exhibits more than 1,000 jungle animals, including Pawah, the famed white elephant of Burma.

Carries over 1,000 people on four all of whom are given three meals each day in the circus dining tents.

Daily expense of show between $15,000 and $16,000.

Five hundred and fifty draught horses carried to move the show.

Three hundred and fifty ring-stock horses used in performance.

Two thousand two hundred stakes driven and pulled each day.

A complete new set of canvas used each spring.

Tents contain 42 miles of rope.

If you could set the elephants on one another's heads the topmost would reach to the roof of a 30-story building.

Supposedly "untamable" zebras taught to draw a float in tournament.

Does not use local light plant but carries its own dynamo wagons.

Has employees who have been with the Ringlings more than 40 years. As many acts shown in one performance as are given in many theaters in an entire season. One hundred clowns running in age from 18 to 78 years old. Tom Lynch, boss hostler, 75 years old. Tallest member of "family," Nosey, the giraffe, 15 years old, 21 feet high. Smallest human member, Major Mite, 22 years old, stands 18 inches. Always opens its season in New York city the last week in March or first week in April. Gives its final performance in some one of the Atlantic seaboard states in late October or early November.

WESLEY MEMORIAL CLASS LEADS CITY

The Alpha class of Wesley Memorial church, with an attendance of 417 Sunday, led the class attendance in the 38 Sunday schools reporting to the Georgia Sunday School association, according to officers of the association Monday. The Agoda class came second with 351 present.

With 1,645 students present, the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school had the largest total attendance with the Druid Hills Baptist second, with 1,118. A total of 20,920 attended the various schools Sunday, it was reported.

TWO CONVICTS LEAP FROM TRUCK, ESCAPE

Two white convicts leaped from a truck loaded with prisoners and escaped on the Gordon road Monday morning, according to a report filed with county police. The men are Robert Jones, of Dalton, and F. G. Year, of Lupton, Tenn. Both men were serving a sentence of six months on a charge of vagrancy. They were sentenced by Judge Jesse M. Wood, of the city criminal court.

Brisk Breezes, Lower Mercury Seen for Today

The brisk northwesterly breezes that whistled through the downtown streets of Atlanta on Monday will usher in another fine, clear day with lowering temperatures, according to today's forecast by C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist of the local weather station.

Ideal fall weather is predicted for the entire state, Mr. von Herrmann, referring to receding to temperatures throughout the country.

TAYLOR, M'COLLUM GIVEN THREE YEARS IN DOBBS' SLAYING

Three-year sentences were imposed Monday on Ollie Taylor and Guy McCollum by Judge John C. Humphries in a consent verdict in their trial for the murder of E. G. Dobbs. Both men were arrested in connection with the death of Dobbs last May following a fight in which Dobbs received his fatal injuries.

It was charged that Taylor and McCollum attacked Dobbs with a brick during a fight on Baker street. The victim died ten days later and attending physicians stated that meningitis was the immediate cause of death. Due to the circumstances surrounding the case, Assistant Solicitor General Ed A. Stephens agreed to a consent verdict. Both men will begin their sentences immediately.

—Attracting Buyers from Near and Far

Ludden & Bates Sale of Famous New GRANDS

$435 and $565

The opening announcement of this Sale brought buyers from the four corners of the state. All last week our trucks were busy delivering to Atlanta and nearby homes; to Marietta, Roswell, Athens, Americus and even beyond! And no wonder. Not in years have we been privileged to offer values such as these: 34 of the finest Grand and Reproducing Grand Pianos on the market, which we recently secured in a lump purchase at a figure far below their market price; and which we are now passing on to the public at savings running all the way up to 40%.

Reductions in Some Cases Nearly 1/2!

A huge slice, indeed! Yet such is exactly the case with many of the beautiful new Grand Pianos presented in this offering. And the importance of the exceptional savings is heightened by the character of the instruments on sale. Five popular, well-known makes are represented. Four out of those five makes have been handled and sold by Ludden & Bates for many years. For this reason, and owing to the splendid reputation of the manufacturers, we have decided not to publish the names in connection with the low prices and terms quoted in this advertisement. Suffice it to say they are of well-known quality and value—doubly guaranteed by both the manufacturer and Ludden & Bates.

The Home of the Chickering, Kimball, Kranich & Bach, Francis Bacon, Straube, Story & Clark, Mathushek, Anderson, Ludden & Bates and other fine pianos.

6 USED GRANDS

Included in this sale you will also find six splendid used grands—instruments that originally sold for two or three times as much, but now priced at

Reproducing Grands, $985

For the first time in Atlanta—a Reproducing Grand Piano at such an amazingly low price! Instruments that are usually sold from $1,600 up. Not a mere player piano, but an electrically-operated instrument which, at the touch of a button, will play for you and bring the greatest masters of the piano into your home to entertain you and your guests.

has been recognized, he believed his experiments with white rats had disclosed valuable data.

The experiments indicated that from March 1 to the middle of September the antirachitic effect of the sun's rays is eight times as great as during the remainder of the year. Dr. Brown said. The most valuable period of the day was found to be between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m., except during the extremely hot on the sunny side. This point frequently is unrecognized, he said.

The resistance of rats to infection with specific organism also was increased by sunshine, and undoubtedly indicates humans would derive the same benefits, he concluded.

Hundreds of physicians and surgeons of note were here for the first session of the five-day meeting. Diagnostic clinics featured today's program.

Washington, October 17.—The incident precipitated by President Coolidge's sudden recall of Major General D. D. Hughes, chief of staff, from an inspection and speaking tour on the Pacific coast is apparently closed as far as the white house is concerned.

Following a conference with the president, Secretary of War Davis indicated today that Mr. Coolidge is not prepared to make any statement. Hughes was flagrantly misquoted in his San Diego speech on the deplorable housing situation existing in the army.

The war department were led to infer that the presidential irritation aroused by the remarks attributed to General Coolidge, and that Coolidge has no intention of even calling upon the chief of staff for a letter of explanation.

It is also the absence of Secretary Davis, who leaves tomorrow on an inspection trip of the Mississippi flooded districts, General Sumnerall will act for him on budget questions.

Secretary Davis called twice at the white house today and was apparently successful in smoothing over any disagreement between the president and over the conduct of his department.

Following his first visit Mr. Davis admitted that housing conditions in

The only way, he believed, the president and congress are now fully awake to the situation and are doing what they can to alleviate matters. He pointed to the fact that $32,000,000 was authorized by congress for new army construction last year as proof of the interest that is being taken by the administration in the housing needs of the soldier.

DR. SMART URGES SUPPORT OF CHEST

Appeal for consideration of the Community Chest as the most effective, the most business-like and the most humane means of filling Atlanta's social welfare needs was made Monday by Dr. Alton Smart, of Emory university, in a talk before the Parent-Teacher association of the John L. Gordon school.

Dr. Smart is one of a group of leading Atlanta men and women working under direction of the speakers' bureau of the Community Chest to impart the message of that organization, and to secure for it the widest possible support which opens next Friday.

"It is difficult for me to believe that anyone who is acquainted with the Community Chest as it has operated in Atlanta does not believe in its merits," said Dr. Smart.

"It means one annual appeal for support instead of 36 separate appeals. It means that the different agencies to which give are subject to careful and intelligent supervision instead of being responsible to no one but themselves. It means that about half as much of what we give is absorbed in overhead as under the old system," said Dr. Smart.

"It means that the budget of each agency is subjected to a sympathetic but thorough scrutiny before we are asked to give to it. It means cooperation among the agencies themselves, so that when a family is found to be in need, one agency can be called on to find employment for its unemployed member."

"Skinny" Women Gain Weight

New YEAST and IRON builds up weight and strength

First treatment gives results—or no money

If you are skinny as a rail, with flat chest, gaunt limbs, and you seem to lack all energy, you need the good pounds of "staying" flesh and the vitalizing strength that only IRONIZED YEAST can give. Thousands of run-down, weak and thin women have regained their normal weight and vigor with IRONIZED YEAST.

Yeast turns your food into flesh and strength

IRONIZED YEAST is a tonic, a weight-building yeast, and a strengthening iron. The yeast is the same used in making malt, and which makes malt so beneficial.

This yeast is treated with iron taken from fresh vegetables, spinach, lettuce and celery. In this form

Iron is easily assimilated by the body, making rich, red blood and toning up nerves and muscles. Only when Yeast is ironized in this way is it most effective. For iron is needed to bring out the weight-building values of yeast. By the formula IRONIZED YEAST gives you results in half the time required by yeast and iron taken separately.

Ask your druggist for IRONIZED YEAST and start to get pounds of weight and new strength today. You will not only feel better, but you will look better, as IRONIZED YEAST clears out the old deadening poisons and brings new healthy color to your cheeks and sparkle to your eyes. ## GIRL AVIATORS WIN ISLANDERS

Horta, Island of Fayal, Azores, October 17.—(AP)—Ruth Elder and Lilli Dillenz, Viennese actresses, brought together by chance in this city from the ends of the earth by their love for adventure and aviation, today had captured the hearts of the population.

Madame Dillenz, waiting for favorable weather to hop off for the United States as a passenger in the Junkers plane D-1230, visited Miss Elder this morning and chatted with her over their respective flights. The Viennese actress motored through the city today enjoying the sunshine and looking most charming in her flying clothes.

Miss Elder—her famous sweater and plus four—being in the wash—again borrowed the Paris gown of Mrs. George Mackay, her hostess. The American girl looked more charming than ever in her borrowed finery despite the fact that it was a little too large for her. The nut brown chemise waist was tucked in, above the two-tiered skirt softened by narrow pleats. A collar of soft lace broke the line of her throat, while an old rose felt hat which she wore could not capture all of her curls. Her borrowed coat reached to the ground and this Ruth laughingly caught up.

Miss Elder expressed delight at seeing Horta and at the lovely weather which has followed the rain which greeted her on her arrival here Saturday aboard the Dutch steamer Barndrecht.

Miss Elder and George W. Halderman, her co-pilot on their perilous transatlantic venture, were the guests of the British consul at tea this afternoon. They expect to sail for Lisbon aboard the Portuguese mail boat Line at midnight.

The crew of the Junkers plane D-1230, held up by a storm for the past two days, however, had weather reports indicating the possibility of their taking off tonight. Refueling of their plane has been going on and all preparations for the resumption of their flight to the United States have been completed.

Climb Down!

HAIR

Whoever heard of using a Laddergram as a curling iron? But it can be done. If you don't believe it, start with Hair and come down to Wave a rung at a time, changing a single letter only in each downward step. Remember the restrictions about transposing letters, and about the use of words that are useful or familiar. An answer which, perhaps, you can better will appear tomorrow. ## C. J. LOCHRIDGE PASSES IN MACON

Charles J. Lochridge, prominent newspaper executive of Clearwater, Fla., and formerly affiliated with The Constitution for 27 years, dropped dead in Macon, Ga., Monday afternoon, as he was speeding to Atlanta to be present at the bedside of his father, T. J. Lochridge, Sr., of Decatur, who is said to be dying here.

Mr. Lochridge was summoned to the bedside of the elder Lochridge, who is in a critical condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harvey Weatherly, 6 West Third street, and was en route by automobile with his sister, Mrs. Oliver Layton, of Tampa, Fla., and her daughter, when he was suddenly taken with a stroke of paralysis.

A native of Cartersville, Ga., Mr. Lochridge moved to Atlanta while a young man. He was highly esteemed by all who worked with him on The Constitution, where he served for more than a quarter of a century. About two years ago Mr. Lochridge left for Florida, gaining distinction there in the newspaper field. He was 51 years of age.

Because of the frail condition of his father and the advanced age of the mother, members of the family Monday night were withholding the news of Mr. Lochridge's sudden death from his parents. No hope is held for the recovery of the elder Lochridge, who is in his seventy-sixth year. Mr. T. J. Lochridge, Sr., has been retired for the past 10 years but prior to that time was well known in the real estate business of this city.

Besides his parents, Charles J. Lochridge is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Nixon; one son, Harris Lochridge, all of Clearwater; one brother, T. J. Lochridge, Jr., of Atlanta; and four sisters, Mrs. Forrest Kibler and Mrs. Harvey Weatherly, of Atlanta; Mrs. F. A. Rice, of Decatur; and Mrs. Oliver Layton, of Tampa.

The body will be brought here from Macon today. Funeral arrangements have not been made. Barclay & Brandon, funeral directors, in charge.

STATE CIVITANS OPEN CONVENTION

Sang several songs. Madge Dellinger, a little girl from Dalton, was a veritable "riot" with her clever readings, and was given several encores.

Ernest Neal, of Calhoun, poet laureate of Georgia and a Civitan, gave readings from his poems and a short talk on poetry. Julian V. Boehm, of the Atlanta club, performed some real professional tricks with a deck of cards. Other entertainers were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jennings, who sang several numbers, and Roy Petty, DeWalt Cohen and Henry Robinson, who offered a number of short dramatic sketches and take-offs. Dancing by the guests followed the stunt program.

Addresses by United States Senator Walter F. George and H. H. Hays, secretary of International Civitan, will feature this morning's session. The convention took under way to a good start Monday afternoon at the Biltmore hotel, accredited delegates from eight clubs being in attendance, together with a large number of visitors.

Selection of the 1928 convention city this morning will involve a fight between Dalton and Barnesville for the next meeting, it was indicated Monday when those two clubs presented invitations to the association. Election of officers is also scheduled for today.

Convention business this morning will include the presentation of a resolution, which, if adopted, is expected to have far-reaching effect in civic club circles. Sponsors of the resolution declined to reveal its nature Monday, stating that it will be a surprise to the convention.

Barbecue Today.

The entertainment program of the convention calls for a barbecue at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at Camp Civitania, to be followed by a program arranged by members of Atlanta council of Girl Scouts.

Formal opening of the 1927 convention Monday afternoon was preceded by an unofficial luncheon tendered visiting Civitans and their ladies by the Atlanta club, with B. Graham West, president of the Atlanta club, presiding. The convention had its official opening at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when addresses of welcome by state and city officials and representatives of the local club were delivered. Bort A. Tyler, of Dalton, responded to the welcome speeches by Mayor Ragsdale and Mr. West.

An outstanding feature of the club reports Monday afternoon was the talk of Bob Shi, of the Macon body. Mr. Shi, among other things of interest concerning his club, told how the Macon organization arranged for the building of a special grandstand at the baseball park to seat boys under 12 years of age, who are admitted free on the presentation of a card signed by the Sunday school teacher signifying that they attended Sunday school on the preceding Sunday.

Prominent Civitans at Convention

Closer Contact Urged.

Joel Hunter, of the Atlanta club, made a short talk in which he urged closer contact between Georgia Civitan clubs for the betterment of the state. Mr. Hunter outlined plans by which he said the Georgia clubs could cooperate more fully and serve the building of good citizenship to a greater extent.

Work of the Georgia Academy for the Blind, at Macon, was described by Professor E. H. McNeil, blind instructor of the institution and a member of the Macon Civitan club. The academy has an exhibit of the student's handwork at the convention.

An increasing number of blind mendicants noted in Georgia cities last year was the result of this state's relieving the left-over and sealawg blind of Alabama, following the institution of an industrial plant for the blind in Birmingham, he said.

Ladies attending the convention were guests Monday afternoon of the Georgia Eggleston, manager of Keith's Georgia theater, at a box party at the theater.

Convention Delegates.

Accredited delegates to the convention are Julian H. Hays, Clarke Harrison and Robert Hays, Atlanta; B. H. Brock and Bob Shi, Macon; Bert Tyler and Will Bowen, Dalton; H. P. Houser, Perry; B. H. Hardy, J. A. Lee, Sherburne; C. H. Blount, W. G. Bryant and George Woods, Decatur; A. W. Hill and M. M. Allen, Summerville; B. V. Dickey and J. H. Paschal, Calhoun; Alternate delegates at the convention are Leo Sheridan and Ike Floto, Macon; J. E. Bush and C. H. Mills, Barnesville; Jim Reeves and O. C. Langston, Calhoun.

Among the visitors to the meeting are Phil Reeves and Ernest Neal, poet laureate of Georgia; Calhoun; Paul Fite, affectionately known as the largest Civitan in captivity, of Dalton, and others.

In addition to President MacEwen, officers of the association are Herbert Porter, of Atlanta, first vice president; Gordon Carson, of Savannah, second vice president; Paul B. Fite, of Dalton, third vice president; and Peyton W. Jones, of Macon, secretary-treasurer. Trustees are Zeb Johnston, of Calhoun; B. H. Hardy, of Barnesville; E. D. Nech, of Barnesville; J. P. Etheridge, of Perry; A. S. Selmon, of Summerville, and Frank Dennis, of Lafayette.

SEWAGE PROJECTS

next meeting of that body November 2, will be asked to run the excavation, in accordance with the request of city council, which also provides that the sewer committee of city council shall confer with the commissioners with a view to devising a plan for perfecting the improvement with the least possible delay.

Action of council in asking the commissioners to take steps for providing for the efflux at the Peachtree creek plant was taken as an effort to relieve the most objectionable situation, but promises other improvements at all other units, according to sponsors of the proposal. The move was taken following appearance of a committee of citizens and a unanimous recommendation of the sewer committee of council, asking that the resolution offered by the committee be approved.

Council suspended the regular order of business to hear the committee headed by former Senator Hoke Smith.

"We are fully cognizant of our rights in a suit of injunction to prevent the city from polluting the streams in the vicinity of Atlanta," Mr. Smith declared, "but we have elected rather to appeal to this council and Fulton county commissioners with a view of seeking your cooperation in removing these nuisances and to appeal to your sense of fairness and justice. We prefer to cooperate with you rather than take an antagonistic attitude, feeling sure you will do everything possible to help us."

Pledges Support.

"While I am not in a position at this time to guarantee that the commissioners will agree to this proposal, I do pledge my support and assure you of my willingness to cooperate in any way possible," Edwin F. Johnson, chairman of Fulton county commissioners said. "The present sewerage system is wholly inadequate throughout the county. Country districts are complaining of the pollution of the streams and other counties also are registering complaints against pouring untreated sewage into streams with flow from Fulton into their sections."

"Health of Atlantans, Fulton county residents and citizens of adjacent towns is at stake in arranging proper disposal facilities. The situation has reached the danger point at the present time. We must take immediate steps to remedy it. If this resolution is passed by city council, I am sure that Fulton commissioners will give it a sympathetic hearing. The board wants to cooperate and to do its share in helping care for the effluence from the various sewer lines. Fulton county, which includes by far the greater portion of Atlanta, is imposing a nuisance on neighboring counties."

"You are coming to us at an exceedingly opportune time in so far as labor is concerned. We should be able to put a large group of convicts at work on the excavation at an early date."

Want Clean Streams.

"Our desire is to see every section of Atlanta and Fulton county adequately cared for in this improvement program," Clark Howell stated. "We want Atlanta and the county to purge our streams of the pollution which is now being caused by the millions of gallons into them daily. This condition is a real danger to the health of our citizens and is otherwise very offensive."

Fulton county is ready to cooperate to remedy the evil. We are asking no money—not even a cent. Twelve years ago an eminent sewer and health expert told us the Peachtree creek plant would be wholly inadequate to carry the load for more than five years. Today more untreated sewage passes into Peachtree creek at the disposal plant than was cared for by all the disposal plants at that time.

Atlanta has grown. We are nearing our 500,000 population. The city owns 125 acres on which the Peachtree disposal unit is located. It also owns another 105 acres near the Chattahoochee river.

There are no more historic spots in Georgia than these. The battle of Atlanta marks the turning point of the Confederate war, and some of the most sanguinary engagements of the fight took place a few yards from the Peachtree creek site.

RADIO-AERO SHOW
OPENED MONDAY

performers as little Miss Freda Sullivan, "sweetheart of the exposition," Margaret Mooring, popular dancing star, and other artists. Performances from the big stage are given twice daily, at 3:30 and 8:30, and, in addition, the elaborate decorations have been so arranged that visitors may sit in the gallery and witness the entire performance instead of having to stand as in the past.

The red-headed Miss Morse captivated two audiences Monday, proving just why she is known far and wide on the big-time stages of the east for her "personality," and why her records sell so fast all over the world.

There are many individually fascinating features of the exhibition and it is scarcely necessary to point them out one by one for visitors.

Access to the main hall, nobody can overlook the most four-room house which has been erected by the Georgia Power company, and which contains every possible electrical convenience and device for the home owner. The house is complete even to a grass lawn and electric fountain in front, and throughout the week hostesses and hosts from the power company will be on hand to receive all guests.

Free Service.

Then, down the avenue to the left of the entrance, there is a booth offering a unique service. It is that of Francis R. Hoyt, head of the Electrical Supervision company. Mr. Hoyt has nothing at all to sell, but is giving advice on radio problems to all comers. He is one of the greatest of radio experts, making his advice and consultation an extremely valuable commodity.

Also, Mr. Hoyt has installed a special equipment at his booth which will not only indicate when a radio tube has outlived its usefulness, but which will revivify worn-down tubes.

Access to the auditorium is in another booth where an unusual offer is made. One hundred 6-tube radio sets are to be given free to the first hundred who apply for them, by the Bailey Tire company, with the sole proviso that speakers, tubes and batteries be bought from the company making the gifts.

The sets comprise one untuned stage of radio frequency, two tuned stages, detector and two stages of transformer coupled audio. It is housed in a handsome mahogany cabinet, operated with two dials and is a thing of beauty for any home.

The entire exposition is backed by the Atlanta Radio Trades association and the Atlanta Electrical league, with H. A. Hap Pendergraph, of the Georgia Power company, as general chairman and Foster B. Steward as managing director.

Three Airplanes.

The three new model passenger and mail planes in the aviation show are the American Eagle, Alexander Eagle, Rock, and Waco 10, all equipped with Curtiss OX-4 motors. The first is entered by Dan Mills, of the Atlanta

GREAT WAR PREDICTED FOR MAY OF NEXT YEAR

London, October 17.—(AP)—Prediction of a great war was made tonight by Basil Stewart, one of the speakers at the meeting of the three-year-old society known as the British Israelite, held at Londoners' house by invitation of the Marquis of Londonderry.

Mr. Stewart made the solemn prediction that the next world war will start on May 28, 1928, and will continue until September 16, 1936. He based his prediction on the symbolism of the great pyramid, combined with what he termed prophetic forecasts of the Bible, and he asserted that the war would be accompanied by unprecedented convulsions of nature, floods and earthquakes.

England, he said, and other countries which are the Port of Israel will emerge victorious, but Russia, asserted the prognosticator, will be wiped out entirely.

Lord Desborough presided, in the absence of the dowager Countess of Radnor, who is president of the society.

$10,750 DONATED
ON PETERS PAVING,
MAYOR REPORTS

Mayor I. N. Ragsdale Monday reported that city council had a total of $10,750 for widening and repaving of Peters street from Walker to Park streets has been donated to the city by the Georgia Power company and the Central of Georgia railway, and that another contribution of $1,000 from one of the property owners has been deposited with the city comptroller.

The power company contribution was $5,000 and the $5,750 was from the Central of Georgia railway. The Woodward estate made the other contribution on the basis of the assessment.

Work of preparing the right-of-way to make a 70-foot boulevard of Peters street, extending from the center of the Atlanta business district to the southern and western sections of the city, is now under way. As soon as this is completed, Fulton county will join in laying the pavement as soon as the right-of-way is completed.

FINE OF $5,000
GIVEN TO TIGER
IN MISSISSIPPI

Clarksdale, Miss., October 17.—(AP) Declaring that warfare undertaken by federal agents and the courts will stamp out the liquor traffic in Mississippi within two years, Judge E. R. Holmes started off the October term of United States district court here today by imposing a $5,000 fine and a penitentiary sentence of three years on John Head, convicted on his third offense of violating the federal prohibition act.

Judge Holmes predicted that within five years there will be little if any trafficking in liquor in the United States.

Of 180 cases set for trial in federal court here, 126 are for violation of liquor laws.

Aero Service, who conducts a training school at Tuggle field, Decatur.

The second is entered by Beeler Blevins, head of the Georgia Aircraft association, while the Waco 10 is seat by the Advance Aircraft company, of Troy, Ohio, through Doug Davis, well-known local pilot and instructor.

Admission to the entire show is 35 cents for adults and 15 cents for children and there isn't a doubt that from whatever angle visitors approach the offering, they will find their money's worth in instruction, entertainment and interest.

N. Y. Title and Mortgage Georgia Meeting Opens; Final Session Today

With many of the leading officers present, the Georgia state meeting of the New York Title and Mortgage company opened Monday morning at the Biltmore hotel. Practically all of Monday was devoted to brief addresses and a general get-acquainted meeting.

Visiting delegates were honor guests at a dinner held Monday night at the Biltmore hotel.

A final session will be held today, with discussions of various phases of the company's business as the feature. Following the session, officers of the company will leave for Orlando, Fla., where a similar meeting will be held the latter part of the week.

MAYOR RAGSDALE TO OPEN EIGHTIETH MISSIONARY MEET.

A welcome address by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, a response by R. W. Wallace, of Valdosta, Ga., and the president's address by E. C. Lucas, of Augusta, Ga., will feature the opening session of the 80th annual Georgia Christian Missionary convention, at 7:30 tonight at the First Christian church.

Following the opening session, which will be devoted largely to preliminary addresses and appointment of standing committees tonight, the state convention program proper will start Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with the devotional address by Dr. R. H. Crossfield, pastor of the First church, of Birmingham, Ala.

Don't Believe Your teeth are naturally "off color"

Simply remove the dingy FILM that clouds them and imperils healthy gums

BELIEVING your teeth are naturally dull is a great mistake. Science has proved otherwise. Permitting your teeth to be other than clear and beautiful is an injustice to yourself.

Largely on dental advice, millions are now multiplying the beauty of their smiles. New methods of tooth cleansing and gum care have been found.

With right daily care, you can work wonders with your teeth. Can give them whiteness and cleanness that amaze. But not with ordinary brushing. Just send the coupon and a 10-day supply will be sent to start you.

It's the film that hides pretty teeth and imperils gums

Dental science now traces scores of tooth and gum troubles to a germ-laden film that forms on your teeth. Run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel it... a slippery, viscous coating.

That film absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. And that is why your teeth look "off color" and dingy.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It lays your gums open to bacterial attack and your teeth open to decay. Germs by the millions breed in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Mere brushing won't do

Ordinary dentifrices and cleansing won't fight film, successfully. Feel for it now with your tongue. Note how your present cleansing method is failing in its duty.

Now new methods are being used. A dentifrice called Pepsodent—different in formula, action and effect from any other known.

Largely on dental advice the world has turned to this method.

It removes that film And Firms the Gums

It accomplishes two important things at once: Removes that film, then firms the gums. No harsh grit, judged dangerous to enamel.

Send the coupon. Clip it now before you forget.

GENERAL'S SLAYER TO CITE POGROMS

Paris, October 17.—(AP)—Whether Samuel Schwartzbar, confessed assassin of General Simon Petura, was motivated by revenge in behalf of the Jewish race or whether he was inspired by the soviet rulers of Russia, will be the principal question debated during Schwartzbar's trial which begins here tomorrow afternoon.

of 20 because of alleged Jewish persecution. He found his way to Paris after he is said to have had some trouble with the police of Vienna.

At the outbreak of the war, Schwartzbar enlisted in the French foreign legion with his brother. He was seriously wounded in the Battle of Carenay in the spring of 1915. He was awarded a war cross and exempted from further service.

Later he returned to Russia where, according to the outline of the defense, he became incensed at the persecutions of and violence against the Jews. He witnessed several pogroms and vowed to avenge his race.

During Petura's tenure of power in the Ukraine, the defense will allege, 50,000 Jews were assassinated, according to Red Cross figures. This bloodshed will be laid at his door by the defense and Schwartzbar's act excused on that account.

More than 100 witnesses have been cited, including Maxim Gorky, the Russian writer; Count Michael Karolyi, of Hungary; Countess Noailles, the Russian woman political writer Mme. Severine as well as a considerable number of French politicians, mostly socialists or of parties with a like tendency.

The attorneys for Petura's family will undertake to show that he was opposed to pogroms and will cite the evidence of such leading Israelites as Israel Zangwill and Vladimir Jabotinsky to that effect.

The prosecution's theory of the crime, which occurred in 1926, is that the soviet leaders at Moscow selected Schwartzbar to kill Petura because the return of Marshal Pilsudski to power in Poland alarmed them and they feared that it would be followed by the return of Petura to power in the Ukraine. They will claim that Schwartzbar's religion was used as a clever camouflage for the real main-spring of the crime.

DUVALL TO SPREAD 'TRUTH' AT MEETINGS

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Indianapolis, Ind., October 17.—Having summoned more than a score of new witnesses the last few days that have not hitherto figured in investigations of wholesale political corruption charges in Indiana, the county grand jury will submit another report on possible indictments, probably this week. Attaches of the county prosecutor's office are anxious to clear up as much grand jury work as possible before the opening in November of the bribery trial of Governor Ed Jackson, George Coffin, county republican chairman, and Robert I. Marsh, Jackson's former law associate, and of other charges of misgovernment pending against John L. Duvall, Indianapolis mayor, and other officials in his klan-supported administration here.

Balked by the unanimous opinion of three leading legal firms here that bonds signed by her as city comptroller are doubtful investments, Mrs. Duvall announced today she will readvertise the bonds and seek new bidders. She was appointed city comptroller by Duvall in order, as he says, to "keep the mayor's office in the family."

In event of the resignation or removal of the mayor, the city comptroller becomes the city's head. But Duvall does not intend to resign, he insisted today. Tuesday night another mass meeting will be conducted to arouse sympathy for "Protestant office-holders now being persecuted by Catholic democrats and disgruntled republicans" and if the mayor himself is not present, at least several of his official spokesmen will be on the platform, with United States Senator Tom Heflin, imported for the occasion, as the principal speaker.

Duvall announced today that he had postponed the first of a series of meetings throughout the city, at which, he says, he will "tell the people the truth as not a single newspaper will tell it."

JUGO-SLAV SUITOR OF MARY L. BAKER WEDS IN BELGRADE

Vienna, October 17.—(United News.)—The skittishness of Mary Landon Baker, of Chicago, in her many real and near engagements, was recalled today by the marriage in Belgrade of Jugo-Slav Consul Puritch.

Formerly of Chicago, Puritch married Miss Dora Pasitch, daughter of the late Serbian ex-premier, in the Zaborna Crkva cathedral.

In 1926 he was one of Miss Baker's persistent suitors and frequently was reported engaged to her. Miss Baker, however, after keeping Puritch on a string for several weeks, suddenly left Belgrade, while Serbian society was much amused at the desolation of the love-lorn Puritch.

RAILWAY RECOVERED BY MARSHAL CHANG

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Pekin, October 17.—Marshal Chang

Tso-Lin's headquarters today announced complete recovery of the Sui-yuan railway to the Shansi border, 145 miles west of Pekin, and reopening of the Hankow railway by the capture of Shih Chia Chwang, 172 miles south.

The Shansi armies have been badly battered, losing more than 10,000 men. In the retreat over the mountain passes Tapan Yen Hsi-shan, of Shansi province, was compelled to abandon a portion of the army and could not recover the badly wounded.

It now develops that the "Shansi" governor was deceived by the Chinese general, Feng Yu-Hsiang, who, upon withdrawal of the Shansi troops from the southern frontier for attacks on the east and north, himself gained a northward drive into Shansi.

Atlanta Man Suffered Untold Agony 5 Years

Stomach Like Coal of Fire,
Body Bloated and Broken
Out, Ordered to Hospital.

Relieved by 3 Bottles of Mineral-Tone, Gains 12
Pounds.

After five years of horrible suffering—all the time taking medicine which failed to help him—Mr. L. L. Lee, of 959 Curran St., N. W., Atlanta, an employee of the Georgia Power Co., finds quick relief in Mineral-Tone. His experience will give new hope to thousands of hopeless sufferers.

"I am glad to say or do all I can to let stomach sufferers know about Mineral-Tone," says Mr. Lee. "Three bottles of Mineral-Tone have done more for me than all the medicine I have ever used. I have suffered untold agony in the past five years from a bad stomach. I went from bad to worse and was taking medicine all the time. I was afraid to eat anything. I was living on sweet milk when I found Mineral-Tone. My stomach would burn like a coal of fire and I would bloat until I was in misery. My body broke out with great welts and pimples, some places were almost a solid sore."

"I was examined by the best doctor in Atlanta, had my blood tested and was told to go to a hospital for special treatment. Several friends recommended Mineral-Tone. Several were taking it right here in this shop. I have used three bottles and I eat what I want and never have a pain. I have gone from 180 to 192 pounds and feel good all the time. My skin has just about cleared up and there is hardly a sign of that breaking out."

Ban Johnson Resigns as President of American League

Loop Heads Fail To Name Successor

Johnson Makes No Statement Except That He Is "Through Now."

By IRVING VAUGHAN.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.)

Chicago, October 17.—"This place has changed hands."

Had such a pre-Volsteadian sign could have been obtainable today it could have been put to good use over the doors leading to the American league.

The announcement would have been the means of informing the world that Ban Johnson, the only president the league ever boasted, a man who had grown weary after 34 years in harness had slammed down his desk, tossed aside his toga and walked out as a private citizen.

He left behind him an accounting of all the league's affairs since it became a major circuit in 1901; also the remnants of a $400,000 per annum contract that had eight more years to run. He took with him only the well wishes of three league directors. He didn't even take the trouble to inquire as to who might succeed him.

Owners Meet.
In answer to the summons sent out by the chief, Frank Navin, president of the Detroit club, Ben Shibe, president of the Athletics, and Clark Griffith, president of the Washington outfit, gathered in the league's executive rooms shortly before noon. Phil Ball, the fourth director, did not appear because of pressing business in the east but he remained loyal to the end by wiring "on anything you want I vote yes."

No ceremony marked the final severing of ties. The three directors walked in to find Johnson seated alongside George Barrett, who was on hand to see that things were conducted in legal fashion. Johnson gave them the league's bank book (representing a tidy sum); the notes and mortgages the league holds against certain properties and the keys to the front and back doors. And that was the end of a fight that started when Johnson tried to discipline Carl Mays for deliberately jumping the Boston club to force his transfer to the Yankees.

When the directors walked out of their last meeting with Johnson they had nothing to say, at least nothing of importance. Navin, as vice president of the league, declared that he would act as head of the league pending an election but that affairs actually would be under the direction of William Harridge, for 15 years secretary of the Johnson administration.

As to the identity of the man who will draw the job that now pays $40,000, as amount that may be reduced, the directors professed to know nothing. They claimed an election had not been held and that the matter might not be definitely disposed of until the annual meetings at New York in December.

Ban Upsets Scheme.
Reliable sources, however, continue to insist that E. S. Barnard, now executive of the Cleveland club, has been named, and that his selection will be announced at a league meeting scheduled to be held November 2. This meeting was supposed to have been called some time ago in anticipation of Johnson's resignation on November 1. Johnson upset the scheme by quitting sooner than expected.

For the immediate future Johnson has no plans except for a rest. Relieved of the job that he had long since decided was not worth the trouble, he departed tonight for Excelsior Springs, Mo. He will undergo treatments there for about a week and then return to Chicago after which he plans on a trip to Honolulu.

FIGHTS

Baltimore, October 17.—Buster Brown tonight won a 12-round decision over Kate Carr. Both are Baltimoreans, and each weighed 122 pounds.

Sidney Lamont of Baltimore, won the decision over Terry O'Day, of Washington, in a six-round semi-final.

Trenton, N. J., October 17.—Pat Haley, of Philadelphia, decisively outpointed Johnny Cusker, of this city, tonight in a ten-round bout, in the opinion of newspapermen at the ring. Haley weighed 150; Cusker 136.

Joe Sharkey, of Trenton Harbor, Mich., knocked out Young Mike O'Dowd, of Bristol, in the second round of the semi-final.

PEGLER BECOMES CONFUSED AT SLEIGHT-OF-HAND GAMES

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)
New York, October 17.—It is about time to admit that very few people ever know exactly who does any particular thing in the big football games and that the people who watch by radio or merely read about it in the fat Sunday papers are deceived no worse than those who sit in the stands personally observing the action. The newspaper press credits this or that conspicuous feat to this or that player, usually are positive enough in their identification, but that is only because the man writing the piece knows that custom requires him to name somebody. This is demanding much too much because football games have become open-air sleight-of-hand shows. The theatrical reporter isn't expected to tell where the magician at the Bijou Dream concealed the guinea pig until ready to pluck it out of the hat.

Fistic Feud

SID TERRIS.

By WILLIAM H. RITT
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The Constitution.

New York, October 17.—The Dempsey-Tunney boxing was a replica in miniature in the growing feud of Sid Terris, lightweight idol of New York's ghetto and Phil McGraw spartan lad from Detroit.

The first meeting of the two lads was such a ferocious set to that steel boxing fans were left limp and gasping in their seats at the last bell. They were matched again on Jewish New Year's and Terris, though having fasted all the day long, courageously tackled the Michigan tangle. Terris lost on a foul.

Now the boys have been matched once more.

SCHOOL CHILDREN SEE IRATE WIFE CHASE HER RIVAL

Baltimore, October 17.—(P)—Classes were disrupted and pupils in a public school were thrown into confusion today when an irate wife chased an alleged "admirer" of 1 r husband in and out among corridors and classrooms, belaboring her, when opportunity offered, with a length of hose. A patrolman broke up the chase and halted the pair before a magistrate.

Mrs. Margaret Appel told the court she had found Miss Bessie Kirby seated on her doorstep this morning waiting for Mr. Appel to come out. She ordered Miss Kirby to depart. Later in the day, she said, they met again near the school. This time Mrs. Appel was armed with the hose, and after quarreling, struck the Kirby woman, who sought refuge in the school. They were fined $5 for disorderly conduct.

Woman Renamed.

Washington, October 17.—(P)—Mrs. Bessie P. Bruzeman of St. Louis was given a recess appointment by President Coolidge today as a member and chairman of the United States Employees' Compensation commission for another term of six years.

BURIED TREASURE NOW DEPOSITED IN INDIANA BANK

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)
New Albany, Ind., October 17.—Between $4,000 and $5,000 in silver and gold coins, bearing dates from 1850 to 1860, which were buried for many years on the farm of John Snider, 80, farmer in Clarke county, has been deposited in the New Albany Trust company and the Mutual Trust and Deposit company.

The money represents Snider's savings which he buried from time to time on the farm. Following the death of his sister, his only surviving relative, Snider is said to have confided the secret of the hidden treasure to William Creamer, a merchant at Bensenville, and asked the latter to assist him in taking care of it. Creamer advised depositing the money in a bank. Snider finally consented to deposit the money, and from day to day recently brought it to Creamer on the installment plan.

One time he brought $20 in half-dimes. Another time he had $3,000 in gold, and still at another time he had silver consisting of dollars, halves and quarters.

The money was brought to New Albany in a truck.

N.B.A. Draws Up New Rules At Convention

Knockdown Question Is Settled by Fight Officials.

Toledo, Ohio, October 17.—(P)—The National Boxing association, after endorsing the Illinois state athletic commission and its referee, Dave Barry, in the handling of the world's heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey in Soldier field, September 22, today incorporated a new rule in its code opposite to that of the Illinois commission.

The all-day session of the boxing representatives from 24 states and five foreign countries brought out only one thing of importance—the new rule regulating the count over a fallen boxer.

According to the new rule, approved by the association, the timekeeper shall arise when a boxer is felled and immediately begin to toll off the seconds. The referee is ordered to conduct the boxer scoring the knockdown to the farthest neutral corner, then return to the fallen boxer and pick up the count with the timekeeper.

Must Stay in Corner.
Should the contestant scoring the knockdown leave the farthest neutral corner, the new rule provides that the timekeeper and referee shall halt the count until he returns to the designated corner.

In the Tunney-Dempsey battle, the timekeeper started counting when Tunney hit the floor, while the referee was coming back to the neutral corner. When Referee Barry returned to the fallen timekeeper he took up the count at "one," although the timekeeper's toll had reached four.

Although the new rule was adopted by the national association does not follow the Illinois regulations to the letter. President Thomas Donohue, of the N. B. A., stated that it was adopted at the suggestion of Mr. George.

Another rule regarding knockdowns also was incorporated into the N. B. A. rules. It stipulated that when a boxer falls or is knocked out of the ring, he shall be given 30 seconds to return. If he does not, or is unable to do so, the referee shall count him out.

The discussion regarding knockdowns and knockouts took up practically the whole day and this caused the postponement of action on Sammy Mandell, Mickey Walker and other champions under the championship committee reports tomorrow.

DEAN OF KANSAS SCHOOL ENDS LIFE

Lawrence, Kan., October 17.—(P)—Dean Perley F. Walker, of the school of engineering and agriculture at the University of Kansas, shot and killed himself in the morning. The body was discovered by a watchman.

Several letters to friends were found on his desk, including one to his mother, in which he expressed the hope the chancellor "would think I am too much of a coward."

Mrs. Walker said the dean spent yesterday afternoon visiting friends and in the evening told her he was going to his office to write letters. She said he apparently was in good health and that she knew of no motive for his act.

Born in Embury, Maine, 52 years ago, Dean Walker graduated from the University of Maine in 1896. He then obtained a master's degree at Cornell. He came to the University of Kansas in 1903 and ten years later was appointed head of the school of engineering. When the schools of architecture and engineering were placed under one department he continued as dean.

He was recognized as an authority on water supply and had acted as consulting engineer for many municipalities.

Sister of Caruso's Wife To Be Divorced On Desertion Charge

Jersey City, N. J., October 17.—(United News.)—A divorce to William T. Glenn from the former Mrs. Benjamin, sister of the former Mrs. Enrico Caruso, was recommended today by J. S. Griffin, special master in chancery.

Glenn in his petition said that after the family's Christmas dinner in 1924 his wife sent from the room her three children by a former marriage and said to him:

"Christmas is over. You can go to hell."

'Yes' Gives Texas Ball and Vandy Loses

Nashville, Tenn., October 17.—(P)—The decision which gave Texas university the ball on Vanderbilt's 20-yard line within the first few minutes of play Saturday was based on the answer of Vernon Sharp, commodore captain and center, to one of the officials, it developed today.

Bill Spears, Vandy quarter, attempting to rattle the Texans with a forward pass on first down beneath his own goal posts, was rushed, and made a wild throw. The ball struck Sharp, an ineligible player, despite his effort to dodge, and was given to Texas under the rules.

Today Sharp admitted that the official who made the ruling asked him if the ball struck him. His reply was "yes." Texas scored a touchdown on the next play and another shortly after to win 13 to 6.

Attaway To Fight Miami Boy Friday

Carrollton, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—Earl Hudson, the "Fighting Cop" of Miami, and Stille Attaway, southern middleweight champion, will mix here Friday night in the headline of a jam-up card for fight fans of Carrollton.

Hudson has made a good record in Miami where he won 38 out of 40 fights and looks husky enough to stand up and fight with the rugged Attaway. Both boys will be o. t. for blood when they meet and the fans of three countries, among whom the fight has aroused considerable interest, should see a good scrap.

Happy Hunter, well-known colored scrapper of Atlanta, will appear in one of the semi-windups against a good opponent.

SCOTT ELECTED HEAD OF CITY CAGE LEAGUE

Trammell Scott, well-known Atlanta sportsman, was elected president of the city basketball league and H. A. Woolf, secretary at a business meeting of the league Monday night.

Play will get under way in the league early in December with some of the fastest teams in the city in the league. McGee was appointed to select a playing court for the season.

Four new teams were represented at the meeting and signified their intentions of entering the league which is expected to be the fastest in the city. With the four new teams the league will open the season with eight teams.

The Gulf Refining company, Southern Bell, Knights of Columbus and the Southern railway teams have already entered the league. Teams representing the Atlanta Athletic club (second team), the Y. M. C. A., and the Martin-Nash company are expected to enter the league.

PETRELS BACK, START WORK FOR ST. XAVIER

BY FRED McEACHIN.

With another hard grid game scheduled for next Saturday the Petrels of Oglethorpe got down to another week of stiff practicing. The next foe on the Petrel card is St. Xavier, whom they meet in Cincinnati this Saturday.

Coach Chestnut scouted the game of the Saints last Saturday when they played Lee college and romped to a 122 to 0 victory. All of this means that the Oglethorpe boys are in for a tough assignment against the Ohio team. Chestnut is drilling his freshmen eleven on the St. X. plays and will serenade them against the varsity today.

Goes to Robins

Dave Bancroft, manager and shortstop of the Boston Braves for the past four seasons, is to appear in a Brooklyn uniform in 1928. His unconditional release has been announced by Emil Fuchs, president of the Boston club.

Pandera Is Winner Of Laurel Feature

New York, October 17.—(P)—A. P. Whitney took the feature of today's program at Laurel, the Allegany handicap at six furlongs when Pandera, with Jockey Workman up, got the decision over Illegitimate by a neck.

Illegitimate's verdict over Prince of Wales (for the place) was a nose finish. Illegitimate broke on top, but was collared in the stretch by Pandera. He lasted long enough to beat the Prince, however. Pandera's time was 1:12 3/5.

Miss Maddox Low Scorer In Tournament

Miss Rosalie Mayer Is Next To Medalist With an 89 at Piedmont Park.

Miss Margaret Maddox, with 88, led the field of 18 women in the qualifying round of the Major & Berke golf tournament played Monday over the Piedmont park course. Close behind at 89 came Miss Rosalie Mayer, president, champion, and Mrs. T. T. Williams. Match play in the three flights will start Tuesday.

Miss Maddox, playing almost flawless golf during the first nine holes, led the half-way mark in 40. During the second nine a most unfortunate and unexpected 11 was made at the long fifth hole, which ruined her chances for an exceptionally low score. At that she completed the second half of the trip in 48.

Owing to the fact that she stepped upon a nail last week, Mrs. Clarence Bradley, the winner of the tournament last year, is unable to defend her title. In match play, which begins Tuesday, one-half instead of three-fourths of the difference between two players' handicaps will be employed. Winter rules will prevail in all matches.

FIRST FLIGHT.
(6) Miss Margaret Maddox plays (12) Mrs. A. G. Smith 90.
(7) Mrs. E. T. Williams (89) plays (27) Mrs. R. E. Glover 101.

Rebuilt Tarheel Eleven Will Face Jackets Saturday

Changes Seen In N. C. Squad; Star Injured

Coaches Dissatisfied With Showing of Team in Last Games.

Chapel Hill, N. C., October 17.—It seems quite likely there may be radical changes in the University of North Carolina football team before it meets Georgia Tech in Atlanta Saturday.

Tarheel mentors have been decidedly dissatisfied with the showing of their club in several of the early season clashes, and several new men likely will break into the first eleven this week.

Even the big blue line which featured in every game this season may not be entirely free of these changes. Farris, a youngster who broke into his first varsity game against South Carolina, showed lots of stuff and may draw one of the guard berths.

Farris was a halfback and end in freshman football, but the varsity coaches have developed him into a bang-up guard.

A Big Problem.
Then, too, he has been a great problem on each of the North Carolina lines since the opening game. Sam and McDaniel, regular flankmen so far, have played everything but consistent football and it may be that either Koster, Dodderer, Holt or Pearson will draw the assignment against the Jackets.

Injuries have taken their toll of Tarheel's hopes this week, too. Billy Ferrell, star fullback who has not formed brilliantly this season, suffered a knee injury against South Carolina that will keep him out of top for two full weeks. Ward, biggest running threat, was hurt too, but not seriously. Neither of these men is likely to get into the game, and this will necessitate a new backfield combination.

With two reserve backs liable to break into the lineup Tarheel supporters will pin their faith on the line, and all this week the team will be watched with interest for possible shifts in the forward wall.

Pro Squad Disbands.
Buffalo, N. Y., October 17.—(United Press.)—The Buffalo Bison professional football team has disbanded because of financial losses and dissension among the players.

The club lost $7,000 on last week's games with the New York Yankees and Frankfort Yellow Jackets.

BARNSTORMING

As members of two barnstorming teams ready for a tour of 20 west coast cities, "Babe" Ruth and "Columbia Lou" Gehrig, Yankee sluggers, are to continue their rivalry in garnering home runs. They are shown above in their barnstorming uniforms.

Britton Defeated In 10-Round Bout

New York, October 17.—(U.P.)—Hilario Martinez, of Spain, was awarded a judge's decision over Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, in a slow and uninteresting 10-round bout at the Broadway Boxing club in Brooklyn tonight. Martinez scaled 144 pounds, Britton 146 1-2.

Britton, who observed his 43rd birthday just two days ago, appeared to be bewildered early in the fight and sank to the floor in the first round after a tame clinch with the Spaniard. He claimed to have received a low punch. The referee evidently did not see the low punch and as the count against Britton

Georgia Coach Shifts Lineup For Tiger Tilt

Bulldogs Hold Light Workout; Scrimmage Slated for Today.

BY BOB SHERROD.
Athens, Ga., October 17.—A light workout and signal practice constituted the first day's practice for the Georgia Bulldogs in preparation for the traditional battle with Auburn in Columbus Saturday. Scrimmages will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, according to Head Coach Woodruff. The team will leave Athens early Friday morning and workout Friday afternoon on the scene of the coming battle.

Hollis Morris, Red Devil tackle, has been shifted to center in order to stem the deficiency in that department. Morris was given a long drill in snapping the pickin Monday afternoon and the coaches have great hopes of making a first string center of him.

Buchanan Shifted.
Buchanan who seemed to have a great deal of difficulty on the line of defense, has been shifted to tackle. At present McDonald, freshman center of last year, will serve in the Furman game, is running signals on the second varsity. Lanford is still playing center on another varsity team, while Ike Boland holds his regular snapper-back position. The position should be greatly bolstered up if Hollis Morris comes through as he promises.

Buster Kilpatrick, freshman coach, who scouted Auburn in their game with L. S. U. last Saturday, was deeply impressed with the offense that the Plainsmen displayed. It will be remembered that the Louisianians were not able to score on Auburn until the last few minutes of play. Coach Bowzer Pitts had not had time to develop a competent offense.

Gene Smith, varsity guard, is rounding into shape after a week of idleness as a result of an injury received in the Yale tilt. He will be able to play in the coming fray with Auburn in his home town, Columbus. Gene's understudy and namesake, Gene Haley, who played in the Furman game, gave a good account of himself and will doubtless see much more service before December 3.

reached five the veteran got to his feet and proceeded with his bout. At no time was there a furious encounter. It was tame and the fans booed. Many of them left after the sixth round when actions of the boxers took on the form of a slow motion picture.

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS.

Cats and Champions.
Listed among the harmless domestic animals in anybody's natural history may be found the common variety of house cat, which has several dangerous sisters but is not supposed to be dangerous in its own right.

All that may be true according to the scientists who write the natural histories, but Mrs. Clarence Bradley will tell you that such statements are the original bunk.

The women's golf tournament for the Maier & Berke trophy opened at Piedmont park Monday morning and the defending champion, Mrs. Bradley, was not denouncing her title and all because of one of these supposedly harmless cats.

No, the feline monster did not attack Mrs. Bradley, but nevertheless it was the indirect cause of a disability which causes Mrs. Bradley to relinquish her title without a struggle. It seems that the champion was engaged in the championship tournament of the Vinings Hills club last week and after she had taken one of her male opponents over the jumps in the semi-final match she was celebrating by playing with a cat in the yard of the clubhouse. The business end of a nail was protruding from a board on the ground and it escaped the notice of Mrs. Bradley until it connected with her foot.

Now the Maier & Berke trophy will change hands without the defense of the champion. Mrs. Bradley declares that she will now play with birdies of the golfing variety and let their traditional enemies alone.

Football Psychology.
Coaches are funny animals. If Oglethorpe should beat all the teams of the big ten conference in one year and tip over all the members of the "big three" in post-season games just as a sort of dessert for the meal, the coaches of the Petrel flock would break down and sob furiously at the poor showing made by the team.

But this does not treat of Coach Harry Robertson and his aides. We now refer to Coach Alexander and his help out at the flats. Judging from their sour expressions and close lips, they are completely discouraged with the great Tornado.

There is an atmosphere of studied gloom hanging over the coaches' sanctum at Grant field today. The demise of the Tide is a thing of the past, the Tarheels are next and there is no optimism among the coaches.

It is possible to get one of the coaches to say that Tech played "pretty fair football" Saturday and one of them even admits that "it might have been worse," but there the burst of enthusiasm ends. One would think that Tech had lost to some second-rate prep school.

There is a reason for such an attitude and a very good reason. If you are a golfer, perhaps in the "high ninety" class, and if you went out one Sunday and beat an old rival, then the next week beat another rival—in fact, you were getting too good in play with these duffers any more—and then you got up a real nice syndicate with a couple of these mere "duffers" and went home in a barrel. If you have done this you may know why the coaches are crying crocodile tears out Grant field way over the Saturday game.

STEADY RAINS FAIL TO HALT EASTERNERS $24,000 SUIT

New York, October 17.—(U.P.)—Steady rains and soggy gridirons failed to halt scores of eastern football teams as they went to work today on another week of practice to fit them for games marking the fifth week on the season's schedule.

Light work was the order in some of the camps, but the majority plunged into long signal drills, forward passing and tag scrimmage.

Coach Lou Young, at Pennsylvania announced that three regulars would not be available for Saturday's game at Chicago against Alonzo Stagg's Maroons. Paul Scull, halfback; Johnny Shober, quarterback, and Utz, guard, were missing from practice. The condition of the squad following the Penn State game makes light work necessary.

Blackboard Workouts.
Glimmer Debie used several combinations for his Cornell varsity during a hard three hours of work. A wet field afforded the coaches opportunity to note how the big red team would stand up under weather handicaps. Princeton, Cornell's Saturday opponent, received blackboard lessons and Coach Bill Roper outlined defenses against Cornell plays. A steady downpour curtailed active outdoor work.

Army, beginning its drive for the Yale game, engaged in signal drill and topped off with blackboard diagramming.

West Virginia emphasized aerial work in its preparation for the Georgetown game. Penn State's regulars indulged in only passing and kicking. Navy rested while Coach Ingram pointed out weaknesses in its play against Notre Dame. Iau Eddy, right guard, will be out of the game for a week because of a dislocated shoulder.

Two Teams Rest.
Pitt's squad returned home from New Orleans, where it soundly trounced Drake, but there was no practice. Washington and Jefferson also rested.

Yale coaches spent the day drilling the second team, as plans are being laid to make many substitutions against Army Saturday. Coach Jesse Hawley brought the ghost ball into play in the Dartmouth camp as the big green worked long after dark for the Harvard game.

Colored Fighters Meet Here Tonight

Plenty of action is in store for colored fight fans who attend the boxing show to be staged there tonight by Billy Hooper, colored fight promoter. Hooper has arranged what promises to be one of the best shows he has staged here in some time. In the main bout of the show, Richard Moore, Houston, Texas, flash will swap punches with Kid Macon, well-known local scrapper, who is expected to give Moore all he can take in the way of fighting.

Kid Miller and Cloeman will mix it in the semi-windup bout, which promises to be a good scrap, as both boys are about evenly matched and know how to fight. Battling Moon will meet Battling Siky and Eddie Cox will face Black Bill in the other bouts on the card.

Swimming Golfer Tees Off On Long Hike

Cleveland, Ohio, October 17.—"Mobile Bill" Jackson, marathon swimmer and golfer, "teed off" from Cleveland this afternoon on the first leg of an attempt to drive a golf ball to his home in Mobile, Ala., where he hopes to arrive in time for Christmas dinner.

When darkness overtook him he had golfed his way three miles southwest of his starting point at the city limits.

On the first lap of the 1,200 mile journey he used 102 strokes and lost one ball.

The Mobile chamber of commerce knows Jackson is on his way and has urged chambers along the way to welcome him. Bill will drive the ball to Cincinnati, where he expects a buddy to join him. Then he will golf his way down the Dixie highway to Mobile.

He once attempted to drive a ball from Mobile to Hollywood but the Pacific coast endeavor failed. He hopes for better results on his Lakes-to-Gulf attempt.

Atlanta Battler In Eastman Bout

Eastman, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—Casey Jones, of Atlanta, will meet Dixie Wright, local scrapper, in the head-liner of a card to be held here next Friday night. Jones has drawn favorable comment in his appearances on Atlanta cards and should give the local boxer a good scrap.

This is the second fight for Eastman, and the first card promoted here was well attended by local fans. A good card has been arranged to support the headline bout Friday night and a large turnout of fans is expected.

Jacket Squad Faces Week Of Hard Work

All Men in Fine Shape After Battle With Crimson Tide.

The Jackets came down from out of the clouds Monday afternoon with a hard week's work ahead of them and the Tarheels of the University of North Carolina at the end. The word comes down from Chapel Hill that the Tarheel coaches are faced with the problem of rebuilding their team. That may mean something, and again, it may not. But anyhow, the Jackets will work just as hard for this game as any other on the schedule.

Whatever doubts there were that Tech might become over-confident after downing Alabama were dispelled by rather caustic comments Monday afternoon on the part of Coach Alexander and his assistants.

Perfect Plays.
The main thing on Monday's program was signal drill and perfection of plays. Hank Bjorkman came out at the beginning of practice with a fistful of papers covered with North Carolina plays, gathered his scrub team off to one side to give them the Tarheel formations.

These same formations will probably be presented the varsity today or tomorrow in scrimmage. Last week, preparing for Alabama, the varsity scrimmaged once. How many times the first string bunch will mix with the scrubs this week is yet unknown.

The squad came through Saturday's brush unscented. Glenn still has a bad leg that is keeping him out of uniform, but he got in the game long enough Saturday to give Tech its second touchdown when he broke up an Alabama pass, giving Tech the ball outside of this, every one was in uniform Monday.

"King of Kings," Stupendous Picture, Opens at Erlanger

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

In many respects the most amazing picture of any kind, "The King of Kings," Cecil DeMille's vivid picture of the life of Jesus Christ, was offered in Atlanta for the first time Monday night at the Erlanger theater, and made a deep and abiding impression on a large opening night crowd.

Infinitely beautiful in some of its scenes, massive in others, mighty in its settings, the DeMille achievement is one that sets new marks in the history of picture production. The big audience Monday sat through the hours the picture was shown in reverent awe. Not a word was uttered in the audience and at no time was there anything like applause, attesting the dignity and sacredness of the theme and of the appreciation of the audience of the profound impressiveness of the work.

Trinx Jackson, "What Anne Brought Home" Atlanta Dancer, Second Forsyth Success On Loew's Bill

Trinx Jackson, Atlanta girl, and winner of The Constitution's Charleston contest two years ago, is one of the stars on the vaudeville bill

What Anne brought home may have seemed like the two yards of crepe she sent her to get, during the first two acts, but "What Anne Brought Home" is a gem of a picture. It is an honest-to-goodness gold brick before the curtain drops on the final scene. And this, in the form of an ideal husband, none other than Walter Regan.

If you don't understand what your reviewer is talking about, it is because you were one of the unfortunate who failed to see the opening performance of the Forsyth Players' second bill. But in this case the proverbial opportunity won't leave after the first knock, which proved to be a "bang" with the first-nighters.

From all appearances the spectators are to enjoy Walter Regan in his cleverly enacted part of Dudley Purdy from the very start, in spite of the fact that he was only a pain in the neck to his in-laws until the brilliant climax of the third act.

As the leading man of the new Atlanta stock performers scored again on the hearts of those who have a taste for light drama. However, "What Anne Brought Home," the rollicking comedy-drama, brightening the stage at the Forsyth theater this week, is not a one man's play. It required the best in every member of the cast to successfully fill all the character parts demanded for proper presentation.

Because "What Anne Brought Home" has a rustic setting—it is sufficient to say that the name of the town in which the action takes place is Benet's Mill, where the lights go off at 10 o'clock whether the young man is calling on his bride or not—there is no reason for anticipating a play that lacks a universal appeal. The situation of the Benet home is as typical as it is amusing—mother trying to keep up with the Jones and the latest gossip, father interrupting the daughter's wooing to finish his newspaper, the visiting relative always threatening to leave but always remaining, three quarreling daughters and their love troubles.

All this requires a wealth of talent on the part of the cast and the audience is not disappointed. Of course the ravishing leading lady, Miss Helene Dumas, is just the wife we want to marry Walter Regan. And the best of it is she does it in the first act, a part is difficult and well executed.

Stanley Andrews takes the part of the father with admirable success, in spite of the necessity for hiding his hand. He is a real character, played by Alinsworth Arnold, and the popular member of the cast to show his versatility in handling character parts. Antoinette Roché does the same in the role of mother.

With "What Anne Brought Home," Jack Jordan, the slickest; Frances Woodbury and Barton MacLane ably uphold the fast-growing reputation of the cast.

"SHADOWGRAPH" OCCUPIES HEADLINE PLACE AT GEORGIA

"Shadowgraph," which proved a feature of the famous Ziegfeld Follies for two seasons, opened Monday afternoon at a continuous round of laughter.

"Shadowgraph" produces a stage effect that seems to make the subjects walk right off the stage and mingle with the audience, in a mystifying optical illusion. Don't fail to secure some "roses" colored glasses from the ushers before the show starts or you'll miss the headline attraction.

One of the most elaborate sets of costumes and stage settings seen in a long while was shown when George Choo presented Day & Allen in "Ball Caprice." The act was divided into several parts and featured some excellent dancing.

John Irving Fisher, an entertainer of merit, scored a big hit with a clever line of "chatter." He mingled several piano selections with his "line" and received hearty applause for his act. His piano playing to this reviewer was a real treat.

Hall & Allman present a clever effect skit entitled "In Motion," but "What Anne Brought Home" is the headline attraction.

Daly & Co. in "Brightlights" offer an interesting act of singing and dancing. Pat Daly, a big, jovial, round-faced comedian, is assisted by five other comedians. A wealthy society background, a wealthy widow gives a house party at her country home. During a bridge game her priceless diamond necklace, which she is wearing, is stolen. The problem then is to find out by the hand of which of her guests that necklace was taken. The clues are cleverly introduced, and the audience is kept on edge until the final startling denouement, which comes as a genuine surprise—especially after you've worked out your own solution as to the criminal.

The comedy for the same list of entertainment is "Chase Yourself," a Jimmy Adams production.

Paramount news, which last week scored a beat over all other news reels in the presentation to Rialto audiences of the arrival in Atlanta of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, is on the same program.

WAR MASTERPIECE, THREE GOOD ACTS ON GRAND PROGRAM

With the tremendous epic of the world war, "What Price Glory," at the feature picture attraction, and with three vaudeville acts of extraordinary merit, headed by Charles Aherm and his "Million Dollar Revue," Loew's Grand theater celebrated the launching of its new "Big Attractions" policy Monday and presented one of the most pleasing programs ever seen in any theater in Atlanta.

Reams of paper have been written about the wonders of "What Price Glory," and its masterpiece, "The College Widow," which is a masterpiece of the original effects, proved to be equally as enjoyable as when offered here the first time. Colonel Charles Aherm, who has been through the war, told about this marvelous picture and the story still would be untold.

The three vaudeville acts selected for this program are of more than ordinary merit. Charles Aherm is a past Atlanta.

BETTY MOORE, BAND, LEND COLLEGE AIR TO CAPITOL BILLING

Betty Moore with her "Parisian Redheads" in "College Days," Dolores Costello in "The College Widow" on the screen and a lot of collegiate atmosphere prevailing, at least in the matinee audiences, are responsible for a splendid two-hours and a half of entertainment at the Capitol theater this week.

As to Miss Moore, it develops that she is the big difference between the "Redheads" and the "Ingenues," heretofore considered the keenest thing in girl bands. The "Ingenues" didn't have Miss Moore, and thereby hangs many an interesting twenty-minutes of vaudeville excellence.

Meredith and Snooker, Jr., the last named being one of the so-called "ingenue" boys, but regardless of whether Meredith has trained the band or the animal really understands, it's a great act he presents. Fox and Maybell, patter and song artists, follow with a bunch of stuff which is pretty much so-so.

"Sunbeams," musical and dance revue, as far as your reviewer is concerned, is about the best thing of this kind that has been put in its appearance in this theater. It has a fast, beautiful and entertaining. Presented by Harry Slatko, it features Henri and Mary Ann, "Slatko's Sunbeams," a fifty ballet.

The "Redheads" are out next with a new program, presented in scenery and costume of college type. Miss Moore is again on deck with her personality, which, as far as could be observed, completely captured the audience. It might be wise of Manager Semon to make her a permanent feature of the Capitol. A female Al Short, imagine!

George Ade's "The College Widow" has been made into a good film, which will undoubtedly prove a big drawing card this week.

BEERY AND HATTON, IN NEW COMEDY, AMUSE AT HOWARD

Messrs. Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, the funny comedy team, have gotten into the harness once more and present for your approval "Now We're in the Air" at the Howard this week. The picture isn't roiling funny. But on the whole it is rather amusing and you wouldn't be wasting your time or money by seeing the picture.

There are two pieces of clever work that save the entire picture. One of them is the antics of the two gentlemen who find themselves alone in the basket of a balloon with the ground an amazingly long way below. First Beery almost falls and then Hatton.

Fred Taunton and Jimmy Van, a couple of laugh-provoking rube headliners, Al Short's entertaining act for the week called "Rustic Revels." The "Rustic Revels" team manages to put its line of patter across in an effective manner. At least Monday night's encores would indicate as much.

Paramount news has some good shots on Tech's 13-to-0 victory over Alabama at Grant field last Saturday and reproduces Stump Thomason's 51-yard run for touchdowns.

Last week it was College week and this week it's Laugh week. Beery and Hatton's antics should make you laugh.

MYSTERY THRILLER STARRING CORTEZ ON RIALTO SCREEN

An honest-to-goodness thrilling mystery story with as much suspense and as unusually baffling situations as anyone could wish, holds the screen in "By Whose Hand" starring Ricardo Cortez, at the Rialto theater Monday. There's something exciting going on all the time from the opening scene to the startling climax of the entertaining film tale.

The plot involves an international society thief and precious jewels that vanish mysteriously. The intriguing mystery is solved by a detective, a society background, a wealthy widow gives a house party at her country home. During a bridge game her priceless diamond necklace, which she is wearing, is stolen. The problem then is to find out by the hand of which of her guests that necklace was taken. The clues are cleverly introduced, and the audience is kept on edge until the final startling denouement, which comes as a genuine surprise—especially after you've worked out your own solution as to the criminal.

The comedy for the same list of entertainment is "Chase Yourself," a Jimmy Adams production.

Paramount news, which last week scored a beat over all other news reels in the presentation to Rialto audiences of the arrival in Atlanta of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, is on the same program.

FOOLS OF FASHION HEADLINE F I L M AT METROPOLITAN

"Fools of Fashion," a Tiffany production, is the headline at the Metropolitan this week. Mae Busch is the leading lady and she is assisted in producing an excellent film by a cast of co-stars.

The story has an intricate plot of married life, in which Mae Busch, a young bride, with all the temptations of a more expensive set. She is the object of a well-laid plot to separate her from her husband, through the cunning ways of a supposed friend.

However, the plot is slowly unraveled and the story ends to suit the fancy of the audience. There are a score or more of costly scenes in the picture showing displays of gorgeous gowns and the social activities of the wealthy New York society crowd.

As an added attraction, Alla Axiom, magician of unbelievable ability, is something well worth seeing. The fakir reads the crystal and the thoughts of the audience so that it appears really uncanny. Without a doubt Alla Axiom is one of the cleverest and best magicians ever to appear in Atlanta.

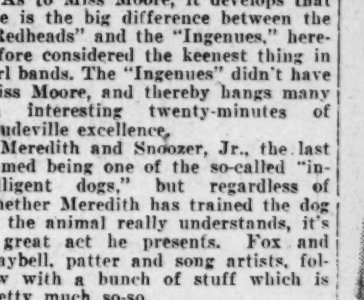

The program is ended with an interesting showing of the Metro News and Views, including scenes of the Tech-Alabama game.

MRS. GEORGE S. ARUNDALE

where the young people think more of the study of religion, philosophy and politics than they do of the batting average of Babe Ruth, the most dangerous step of the most talked of movie? You might find it dull, you certainly would find it strange. At least so think Mrs. George S. Arundale, wife of Bishop Arundale, of Sydney, Australia. Mrs. Arundale, before her marriage seven years ago, was Shrimati Rukmini, daughter of one of India's most aristocratic families, and with her husband, is in Atlanta for a few days.

"Yes," said Mrs. Arundale in that pleasing, soft voice that is so characteristic of the Oriental and which is so delightful to hear. I am quite sure your young people would find India quite dull. You see, things are so different. In India the young people are not so much interested in the good students, they go in for the study of religion, of philosophy, of politics. They do not dance, they do not go to the movies. They take some interest in athletics, or at least the men do.

Work on Memorial Drive, New Artery, Begins Today

Start of construction work on Memorial drive, important artery of traffic, which is to run from Avondale Estates to Stone Mountain and thence to Athens, will be signaled at 12:30 o'clock this morning when groundbreaking ceremonies are held at the Decatur end of the highway, 200 yards east of Avondale Estates.

Leading state officials and highway department heads will deliver addresses at the ground-breaking program, which will be followed by a barbecue dinner. The ceremonies will be attended by Governor Hardaway, members of the highway board, Mayor Ragsdale and many other state and county officials.

The new drive will be completed in 1928, according to expectations, and plans are already under way in several organizations to plant memorial trees along the route. The highway is

BIDS ON 5 SCHOOL PROJECTS TO OPEN

While Mayor I. N. Ragsdale today is affixing his signature of approval to resolutions calling for expenditure of $1,500,000 for new school projects contemplated from school bond funds which Monday were passed by city council, a special committee composed of four members from the Atlanta school board and four members of the school contract committee of the Atlanta bond commission will open bids for the first five structures to be constructed from funds provided by the $5,000,000 bond issue of 1926.

A special meeting of the board of education will be called for Wednesday or Thursday to award the contracts and a special meeting of council is expected to call Monday to ratify the selection.

Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president of the board of education; William C. Slate, commissioner from the second ward; W. W. Gail, chairman of the school committee of council, and D. M. Therrell, of the seventh ward, will represent the school board, and the school contract committee of the Atlanta bond commission will be represented by W. L. Hancock, who will represent the bond commission at the opening of bids.

26 Projects Approved.

Council approved the 26 projects submitted to it Monday by Alderman J. Allen Couch, chairman of the school committee of council, but declined to take further action on $42,000 worth of equipment, which it turned down at a previous meeting on the grounds that bids had been opened and tabulated by the administration department instead of by the buildings and grounds committee of the school board as provided in the board rules.

The board returned list of supplies and equipment to council Monday with an explanation that the bids were not tampered with but that they were opened and tabulated in the interest of time to expedite matters. Under an action of council declining to take further action, the board will be forced to re-advertise for bids. This probably will be done at the special meeting at which contracts for the five projects are awarded.

New schools for Capitol View, Stanton, Davis and Ormeau schools and an annex for Hoke Smith Junior High school are the ones for which bids will be opened this afternoon.

Palace

Palace today in the lovely human interest comedy-drama of back-stage life, "Everybody's Acting." The theme revolves around the central character, an orphaned girl who is adopted by five good fathers, and is trained to become the ingenue lead of a stock company. Miss Bronson cleverly and artistically portrays her character.

Community Theaters

West End Theater—Belle Bennett who won fame in "Stella Dallas" gives an even greater portrayal in "Mother," which runs for the last time today. This great picture carries you into a typical American home where you get a human slant at the joys and sorrows, the longings and disappointments prevalent in every home.

Tenth Street Theater—Showing for the last time today at the Tenth Street Theater Laura La Plante in "Her Big Night," a story of girls who like to be flirts—and men who would like to know how it is done. See glorious Laura juggle men as only she can do it.

Palace Theater—Tremendous scenes of a storm at sea, tossing about a tiny fishing fleet in the Canary Islands are only a part of the gripping production "The Sea Tiger," starring Milton Sills showing for the last time at the Palace theater today. Sills plays the role of a Spanish fisherman seeking to find the love of a fisherman's daughter.

With Dates and Dances Taboo India Is No Flapper Paradise

BY WHITNER CARY.

"What say you, modern flappers and twentieth century shiks, to a country where jazz music falls on deaf ears, where late dates, and dates of any kind for that matter, are as scarce as good halfbacks at Harvard, and recently the girls' schools have taken them up?"

Nature and any Atlanta reporter would feel stunned at hearing of such a condition existing among the young generation. In desperation he asked: "But don't the young people of your country go to parties, to see each other, have social gatherings?"

Again came the sound of that well-modulated voice: "Occasionally there have state functions, occasionally we meet in each other's houses, but our chief gathering places are at concerts and debates, as you know in India there is no such thing as a party. Your marriage is arranged by the two families—unless," she added quickly, "as she can afford a place at a dinner and a dance, but that is not the case." "It is a love match such as ours." And right here it might be added that the Indian government and the aristocracy of that country raised great objection to one of the members of its upper class marrying a European.

Young people are kept at home," continued that rippling voice. "They are seldom seen outside and what you call a 'date' is unheard of."

Dame fashion is another thing that would cause a terrible upset to American girls. In India, according to Mrs. Arundale, the fashions are the same as they were hundreds of years ago. "That," said Mrs. Arundale, "is a great blessing. You see we never have to bother about the fashions from one season to the next. An Indian girl picks out the color that best suits her and wears it. All the styles are the same." That might seem strange to the well-dressed women of Atlanta, but when Mrs. Arundale went to India, she brought out two beautiful saris, one of gold and silver and another exquisite thing of rare beauty, and gracefully draped them over her slender shoulders, one could readily understand why there was little need of styles changing in her country.

And with that the interview, if such it might be called, came to a conclusion. Mrs. Arundale left a picture in the reporter's mind of a beautiful, slim, well-dressed Oriental woman, extremely well-educated and with a dignity and calm about her that made one feel that while the customs of India are different, beautiful and charming women are not strangers to that distant land.

to be 60 feet wide and will run from Stone Mountain to Athens by way of Marietta. It will become a part of the federal highway between Atlanta and Athens.

G. F. Willis, owner of Avondale Estates, is to take a prominent part in the ceremonies, while the barbecue is to be given by the Stone Mountain Memorial association, with A. M. Vernon, of Atlanta, in charge.

Ponce de Leon avenue is to be extended several hundred feet in the eastern section of Decatur, so that an overland passage can be erected over the Georgia railroad tracks, a right drive out Ponce de Leon to Avondale Estates and Stone Mountain. The drive will be connected with an extension of East Park street. Motorists will be given the opportunity of driving to Stone Mountain by one route and returning by another through construction of the new highway.

5TH WARD COUNCILMEN SEEK TO OUST MADDOX

Jim W. Maddox, school commissioner from the fifth ward, came again under the fire of the councilmanic delegation from that ward Monday, when Ellis B. Griffin, and Jim E. Bowden demanded a councilmanic committee of five members to investigate his residence with a view of ousting him from his position if it is found that he is not a resident of the ward he represents.

Mayor Pro Tem W. Guy Dolbs named Alderman Charles M. Ford, of the tenth ward, as chairman of the probing body; Alderman Charles Murphy, of the 11th ward; Councilman H. Turner Loehr, of the first; Jack H. Hardy, of the sixth, and W. Garland Cooper, of the tenth, as other members.

When the paper was first offered, Alderman J. Allen Couch, of the fifth, declared he would oppose the paper unless the number of the probing committee was increased from three, which the original paper called for, to five. This was done, and the resolution passed without opposition.

Mr. Maddox was attacked once before but council declined to take any action in the matter.

Mr. Ford announced Monday night that he would call his committee to begin the hearing within the next few days.

THOMAS W. THURMAN PASSES IN GRIFFIN

Griffin, Ga., October 17.—(Special.) Colonel Thomas W. Thurman, 88, Confederate veteran and the oldest living member of the Griffin Bar association, died at his home here last night at 11 o'clock after a long illness. He served in company E, 13th Georgia regiment, as captain during the war between the states and was wounded in his right leg, causing amputation of same in December, 1922. He had practiced law in Griffin for the past 65 years.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church, the Rev. Horace Smith officiating. Interment will be at Oakhill cemetery. The casket will be in care of the funeral home of Griffin, Ga.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. J. C. Bowditch, of Dade City, Fla.; Mrs. H. V. Jenks, of Atlanta; and Mrs. T. A. Mims, of Willacoochee; three sons, T. B. Thurman, Miami; H. G. Thurman, Edison; and J. B. Thurman, of Griffin; one brother, Dr. J. B. Thurman, of Atlanta; and two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Linnest, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. J. M. Speers, of Atlanta.

Peeples-Daves Wedding To Be Lovely Event in Cartersville

The eyes of society turn today toward Cartersville, where at 8 o'clock this evening Miss Mary Munford Peeples will become the bride of Joel Thomas Daves, of Atlanta, at a beautiful ceremony taking place in the Methodist Episcopal church. A brilliant reception will follow at Roseau, the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Emeries Dargan Cole, the bride-elect's cousins, the wedding to be attended by a large assemblage of representative society, including many Atlantans who will motor to Cartersville.

She took a world-wide journey and picked up treasures as she traveled. In London she fitted out her boys and girls with warm tweed topcoats from England's famous woolen mills. Next, she crossed the channel to Paris, where her selection of effective costume jewelry, fine perfumes, and Parisian gowns for herself and her daughters gratified her femininity and her mother love. She completed the distinction of these gifts by adding to them hand-painted eveningshawls, her "find" in Coma, Italy.

Yielding to an old desire, she made a long journey to China, where she was captive to a rug, whose deep blues would add character to her living room. From Japan she turned west again, but not before her friends were the richer for the dainty luxury of hand-embroidered kimonos. In Czecho-Slovakia, housewifely instincts were insistent—she laid in a good stock of peasant linens. Following a route a little north of her previous trail, she ran into Germany, where she reveled in Christmas toys for the little home folks. In Belgium she added to her supply of fine linens, crossed the channel, and was back in London. A flying trip across the Irish Sea to Belfast, where she found laces as durable as beautiful—then across the Atlantic again.

Yet she was held up in no Custom House and slept every night in her own good bed at home, for

To Make Your Home a Place of Joy and Harmony

There are some houses you visit where you feel instantly at home. There is an air of comfort and cheer about them. They are not necessarily rich and elaborate. They may be simple and even shabby. But there are comfortable old chairs that you sink into—and it doesn't matter if you spill ashes on the floor. And the folks who live there are always glad to see you. They welcome you with their own cheery graciousness—and no matter when you drop in, they always offer you a welcome cup of RIDGWAYS deliciously fragrant tea to cheer and refresh you.

No wonder you feel at home there! No wonder being there always puts you in a mood of good fellowship and genial camaraderie! RIDGWAYS TEA does that for you. It warms you so that you feel relaxed and at harmony with yourself. It invigorates you so that you feel friendly and in harmony with others.

To make your home a place of joy and harmony, begin by putting your guests and your family, too, in a happy frame of mind by refreshing them with the always welcome cup of RIDGWAYS fragrant, full-bodied tea.

PAINS BROUGHT ON BY TOXIC CONDITION

MRS. IDA PERRY, of Hurricane, W. Va., says she has found Thedford's Black-Draught to be a "fine family medicine," and gives the following interesting account of her use of it in her home:

"Sometimes I suffer from indigestion, and I have found that quick relief follows a dose of Black-Draught. This medicine is also excellent for constipation, and I am glad to recommend it."

"All last winter I suffered from pains in my legs and across my back. I did not sleep well at all, and was very nervous. I could scarcely walk, and was unable to climb up and down the steps. I was almost past going, and it took all my strength to get around. My housework was a great care, and I did not feel equal to it. I was in a condition that had been

Best Way to Loosen Stubborn Cough

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, throat tickle, bronchial asthma, or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaracolin, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MOTHER IS FINED $100 FOR SON'S AUTO CRASH

Mrs. A. F. Reeves was convicted Monday afternoon in Fulton superior court on the charge of allowing her son, under 16 years of age, to drive an automobile in violation of state laws. The machine which the youth was operating figured in a fatal accident, it was pointed out at the trial. Mrs. Reeves was convicted in Judge E. D. Thomas' court on a misdemeanor count and fined $100. A bond of $300 was posted pending appeal of the decision. The case attracted much attention, as court officials said that it was the first time in the history of Fulton county courts that the state attempted to hold a parent responsible under the state law prohibiting a person under 16 from operating an automobile.

A joint indictment was returned against Mrs. Reeves and her husband in connection with the death of George Slaton, 70, who was run down and killed in Hapeville last March by an automobile alleged to have been driven by their son, James Reeves, 13.

The boy, also, was indicted on a misdemeanor count, charging that he operated the automobile which killed Mr. Slaton. It was stated that a manslaughter bill against the boy was given to the grand jury but that the jury declined to return an indictment. Mrs. Reeves is said to have been an occupant of the car at the time Mr. Slaton was killed. She was charged in the indictment with "knowingly" having allowed a child under the age of 16 years to operate an automobile in violation of the state law. The defendant was represented by Attorneys H. A. Allen and Jesse B. Simmons. Assistant Solicitor General John Hudson and Attorney Joseph Humphries represented the state.

Tell Them How You Lost Fat

This is to people who have lost fat in the modern scientific way. And who have gained new beauty, new health and vitality by it. You are everywhere. Tell others the facts, as someone probably told you. Some two decades ago, scientific men discovered a cause of excess fat. They learned why some are thin and some are fat, regardless of food and exercise. They found a way to fight that cause by supplying the body some elements required in nutrition.

Then came Marmola prescription tablets embodying that new method. They have now been used for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. You can see the results wherever you look. Slenderness prevails. All ideas of beauty, all styles in dress, are based on slender figures.

Users of Marmola are not forced to abnormal exercise or diet, though moderation helps. They simply take four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal. And new health and vitality comes with that reduction—in an amazing way. The formula of Marmola comes in every box. Also the reasons for results. Thus you may know just why the good comes, and have no fear of harm.

People who are over-fat should start Marmola now. Order a box—before you forget. Learn all the facts about it, then watch results. When you gain your desires, tell your friends how to gain them. Don't wait any longer.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from his jobber.

SON OF FLORIDA POSTMASTER HELD ON FORGERY COUNT

The story of how a son betrayed the confidence and trust placed in him by his father, and ran afoul of the postal laws, was told in simple fashion Monday afternoon in a wire received by Joe P. Johnston, postoffice inspector in charge, from Tampa, Fla.

On October 13, Postmaster E. J. Spivey, at Citrus, Fla., reported that 18 blank money orders had been torn out of the back of his money order book. Inspector H. G. Reese was assigned to investigate the theft, and discovered that three additional forms had also been taken, the stubs being marked void.

The next development came when it was found that all 21 of the stolen forms had been forged and cashed, for a total of $2,056, at the postoffices and on business firms in Tampa. Further investigation resulted in the arrest of E. B. Spivey, son of the Citrus postmaster, on a charge of stealing and cashing the money orders.

The evidence against young Spivey is complete, according to the wire from Inspector Reese. Most of the forged money orders were made out payable to young Spivey and signed with the name of fictitious remitters, it was stated.

Dalton Commandery Holds Memorial Service in Church

Dalton, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—The annual memorial services of St. John's commandery, Knights Templar, were held here Sunday in the First Methodist church, there being present a full attendance of knights and a large congregation.

It is stated that this is the only commandery in the United States which observes this memorial custom. Each year the local commandery arranges a program in memory of the deceased membership and delegates some member to repair to the last resting place of one of the deceased brothers and decorate the grave with flowers.

The deceased members who were so honored Sunday were Charles A. Maples, W. F. Manning, F. T. Hardwick, G. W. Hamilton, G. D. Shegerson, W. A. Black, C. A. Kreischer, W. C. Huff, J. A. Crawford, J. A.

30 Farmers To Leave Rome Today on Trip Throughout South

Rome, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—Floyd county farmers have shown more interest and enthusiasm in the diversification tour sponsored by the agricultural group of the chamber of commerce, on which dairying and poultry centers of the south will be visited by the 30 farmers selected by the farm bureau, than in any project designed to aid the farmers of the county that has been put forward in many years, according to Wyatt Foster, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and J. M. Loomer, secretary of the Floyd county farm bureau.

Transportation will be furnished by the agricultural group, which has arranged for ten automobiles to make the four-day trip, leaving Rome Tuesday morning.

The national dairy show, being held this year in the south for the first time at Memphis, Tenn., will be visited on the tour and a half-day will be spent there in inspecting and observing the most modern dairying methods.

Leaving Rome Tuesday morning, the motorcade will go to Chattanooga, then to Murfreesboro, Nashville and Memphis. From Memphis the party will go into Mississippi, visiting Corinth, Tupelo and other points, thence to Florence, Ala., and Muscle Shoals, thence to Huntsville and across Sand mountain via Albertville and Boaz to Gradsden and through Center to Rome.

Local lovers of music are offered to night an almost unique opportunity for an interesting and delightful vocal concert.

Lillian Evgenti, of Washington, D. C., and more recently of Europe and the larger opera houses there, is to appear at Big Bethel A. M. E. church at 8 o'clock to present a program ambitious enough to challenge the ability of any coloratura soprano who has sung in America in generations.

Opening with "Care Selve," by Handel, the program quickly jumps into the difficult with Mozart's "Die Entführung aus dem Serail." Next comes the "Shadow Song" from Meyerbeer's "Dionysus," followed with a group of lighter numbers, including some negro spirituals.

An interesting number is the "Song of the Fire," from the new French opera by Ravel, in which the flames come out to threaten the "bad little boy," who has played with matches and otherwise misbehaved himself.

The program will be featured with an aria from "Traviata" in costume. Evgenti ranks with the greatest of young operatic stars in Paris and is, with Roland Hayes, the tenor, fast winning a remarkable recognition for her race in musical circles. Critics comment particularly upon the richness of her tones, united with her coloratura ability.

ROME MUSIC CLUB OPENS DRIVE TODAY FOR 1,000 MEMBERS

BAKED that's the way you like them

Baked, in ovens, in the real old fashioned way. Baked until they are plump, mealy and tender—baked until they are a rich and golden brown—baked until they are nearly ready to burst with their own goodness. Baked until the beans "drink up" the Heinz delicious tomato sauce in which they come.

It is the oven-baking that makes Heinz Baked Beans so tender, so good to eat, so digestible.

Only because they are baked, can Heinz Beans be labeled "Baked". Beans not baked cannot be labeled "Baked". • The taste is the test.

BANKER GIVEN PRISON SENTENCE

Decatur, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—William I. Jenkins, former cashier of the East Atlanta bank, was sentenced to serve two and one-half years in the penitentiary here this morning after he had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of having embezzled the sum of $14,000 from the banking institution. Sentence was passed by Judge John B. Hutcheson, the Jenkins case being the first one called when the special October term of DeKalb superior court opened.

The plea for Jenkins was entered by his attorney, R. B. Lambert, of the law firm of Lambert & Lambert, Attorney Frank A. Hooper, Sr., assisting the state in the case, stated to the court that Jenkins was discharged from the bank on May 22 after an audit of the books of the bank had been made. He stated that Jenkins was arrested on August 8 on a felony warrant issued out by Dr. E. F. Fincher, president of the bank.

Jenkins was indicted by the grand jury at the September term of court and has been at liberty since on $15,000 bond.

Romer Nash, of near Tucker, was convicted today on a charge of having stolen an automobile in February, 1926, from W. E. Barlow, of Decatur, while the latter was attending church, the car being parked nearby. The jury recommended that the case be treated as a misdemeanor and Judge Hutcheson has not yet passed sentence, which may be either a prison term or fine. The criminal docket is expected to be cleared by the court this week and civil cases will be tried next week.

CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR 'NAVY DAY' OCT. 27

Plans for the biggest naval celebration in the history of Atlanta are being made by resident regular officers of the service, as well as members of the naval reserve forces for Thursday, October 27, designated as "navy day." A dinner at one of the clubs, a speech by one of the high-ranking officers of the United States navy, who will visit Atlanta, and a program to be broadcast over the radio, are included in the plans being prepared.

A prominent part in the program has been assigned the students at the Reserve Naval Officers' Training school at Georgia Tech, as well as the Atlanta naval reserves, commanded by Lieutenant H. F. Dobbs, Jesse Draper, a lieutenant-commander in the naval reserve, is general chairman of the various committees having charge of the event. The "navy day" exercises are sponsored throughout the United States by the Navy League, a civilian organization engaged in promoting the best interests of the service.

Atlanta ranks today as one of the most important naval centers in the United States, it is stated, despite the fact that this city does not possess the water advantages of cities on the sea coast. The position of Atlanta with relation to the United States navy will be made plain over the radio on the night of Thursday, October 27.

Much attention has been directed to this city in recent years due to the spirit it displayed in obtaining one of the seven reserve officers' training schools assigned by the navy department to leading educational institutions. Other units are located at Harvard, Yale, Northwestern and similar institutions of national reputation. The school at Georgia Tech is the only one of its kind in the entire south.

Commander John J. London, professor of naval science in charge of the school at Georgia Tech, has promised the hearty cooperation of his associate officers and the entire unit, in making Atlanta "navy day" an outstanding event.

KILGOUR IN PULPIT AS TABERNACLE REVIVALS CONTINUE

God recognizes but two classes, the saved and the unsaved, Rev. Robert D. Kilgour, pastor-evangelist, pointed out in his sermon Monday night at the Gospel Tabernacle on Capitol avenue. The saved are filled with the contentment of life, but the unsaved, the sinner is living a life robbed of its enrichment," he asserted.

Rev. Kilgour is preaching at each service in the temporary absence of Rev. R. L. Erickson, who is in Asheville making arrangements for another gospel campaign which he will begin following the close of the tabernacle revival here on Monday. Rev. Erickson will resume his revival messages Wednesday evening.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Kilgour will speak on the subject, "The Operations of the Holy Spirit" and tonight at 7:30 o'clock his topic will be "The Great Controversy."

THE FEDERALS WERE DRAWN UP WITH THEIR BACKS TO THE RIDGE, WHICH WAS BROKEN BY ROSSVILLE GAP, THROUGH WHICH LED THE ROAD TO CHATTANOOGA. BRAGG HOPED TO CAPTURE THIS PASS AND CUT ROSECRANS OFF FROM THE CITY.

Duce Prohibits Speeches In Italy Except on Two Days

THEY WASTE TIME AND TIRE PEOPLE, HE SAYS.

BY FRANCISCO REA.
Rome, October 17.—(United News.)—Beaming with contentment, Premier Benito Mussolini proved himself an astute psychologist and economist Monday by prohibiting all celebrations which entail "speeches of any caliber" except the two big national holidays—the anniversary of the fascist march on Rome and world war victory.

He was content because his report to his hand-picked cabinet showed the affairs of government were being handled peacefully and efficiently administered.

As for the dictator's economic and psychological genius, Mussolini decreed that any celebration, ceremony or inauguration, whether important or unimportant, where speeches are made, are prohibited until further notice because they constitute a loss of time and tire the population.

Furthermore, Mussolini said the fifth anniversary of the fascist march on Rome will be given a political and military character, but will be celebrated for only one day—October 30—in order not to interrupt the activity of the nation too long. Likewise, the war victory celebration will be confined to a single day—November 6.

Professor of naval science in charge of the school at Georgia Tech, has promised the hearty cooperation of his associate officers and the entire unit, in making Atlanta "navy day" an outstanding event.

Several cash prizes will be given to the persons securing the largest number of new members.

SAVING ARMY BUYS GRIFFIN HOME

Griffin, Ga., October 17.—(Special.)—The local post of the Salvation Army has purchased a home here and will establish a Salvation Army center here. The purchase of the property was handled by the southern general headquarters of the Salvation Army. The house on the corner of the intersection of the highway will be used for an officers' home.

KILGOUR IN PULPIT AS TABERNACLE REVIVALS CONTINUE

God recognizes but two classes, the saved and the unsaved, Rev. Robert D. Kilgour, pastor-evangelist, pointed out in his sermon Monday night at the Gospel Tabernacle on Capitol avenue. The saved are filled with the contentment of life, but the unsaved, the sinner is living a life robbed of its enrichment," he asserted.

Rev. Kilgour is preaching at each service in the temporary absence of Rev. R. L. Erickson, who is in Asheville making arrangements for another gospel campaign which he will begin following the close of the tabernacle revival here on Monday. Rev. Erickson will resume his revival messages Wednesday evening.

American Tactics Cause of Protest At Radio Meeting

WASHINGTON, October 17.—(AP)—A little static hovered in the otherwise clear atmosphere of the International Radio conference today when F. W. Phillips, British delegate, precipitated an Anglo-American dispute with charges that the United States was slowing up the efforts to rewrite the radio convention of 1912.

Phillips declared in a committee meeting that America's attitude as to the inclusion in the proposed convention of subsidiary agreements or regulations affecting management of radio was so uncertain as to cause repeated delays in reaching an agreement.

He added that if the United States did not desire to pronounce herself upon problems as they arose, but wished to wait until the whole convention was drafted to decide whether she would subscribe to it or not, then the other countries should proceed as if there were no American proposals before them.

Representative White, of Maine, American delegate, replied that the principle of leaving private operating concerns free to determine questions of their internal management was clearly visible in the American proposals. He added, however, that the United States would not insist upon the clear definition of this principle, but would be satisfied if, in fact, no provision of the convention ran counter to it.

G. J. Hofker, of Holland, acting as chairman, asked both Americans and British to prepare for the next committee meeting, scheduled for October 21, a statement of their respective positions.

Average American Declared Political Prejudice Puppet

MINORITIES PROFITING, SAYS DR. BUTLER

New York, October 17.—(AP)—The average American has lost the art of reflective thinking and, no longer eager to examine questions for fundamental truths, is the puppet of political prejudice, said Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, in an address before the Institute of Arts and Sciences today.

Political minorities have used this lethargic state of mind to further their own ends, he continued. He cited the eighteenth amendment as an example of a minority group changing the fundamental functions of government.

"While in some countries," he said, "the habit of not thinking leads quickly to grab and conventional conformity in respect to opinions, conduct, reading, amusement, and even dress, perhaps the greatest God has sent a thinker on this planet. Then all things are at risk."

Rear Admiral Weds Russian

McULLY TO BRING YOUNG WIFE TO CHARLESTON, S. C. At Reval While on Leave

Washington, October 17.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, a 60-year-old bachelor, who in 1920 adopted seven Russian orphan children while he commanded American naval forces in Russian waters, has married Olga Kravchenko, a 29-year-old Russian woman, the state department learned today.

The marriage took place at Reval, Russia, last week and the admiral immediately applied for an American passport for his wife. The department instructed its consul there late today to issue her a non-quota immigrant visa.

When the admiral brought to the United States his adopted children, who ranged in age from 2 to 12 years at the time of his return in 1920, like a mission, he is due to return to his post in the near future.

He was the second senior bachelor among the admirals, John D. McDougal, commander at Honolulu, who retired November 1, being the oldest. There are only two other rear admirals who are unmarried.

URBAN LEAGUE WEEKLY BULLETIN

Music lovers of Atlanta will be presented a series of extraordinary musical treats within the next several weeks. The first will be a concert under the auspices of the Alumni association of Morris Brown university, which will be given by the choir of the university, under the direction of Lillian E. Evans, soprano, grand opera star of Washington, D. C., at the Big Bethel A. M. E. church, Tuesday night, October 18, at 8 o'clock. The net proceeds from this concert will be donated by the Alumni association to the board of trustees of Morris Brown university.

On Friday evening, October 21, Frederick Hall, musical director of Clark university will appear in recital of original compositions in the Crozer chapel, Clark university. He will be assisted by the Clark chorists and Z. A. Anderson, reader. Professor Hall has been a student musician and has achieved some distinction for his contribution to the musical progress of the race. He was employed for several years as director of music at Jackson college, Jackson, Miss., and the public schools of the city.

Nel Hunter, of Durham, N. C., is scheduled to appear in concert at Clark university around the first of November.

Within a fortnight the Booker Washington High school is to present the play "The Sign of the Cross" at the city auditorium.

A nationally-known musician is to appear in concert at Spelman within the next 30 days.

AUTOISTS STRUCK BY FREIGHT CAR, SUFFER INJURIES

R. C. Parker, of 522 Simpson street; Miss Ruth Johnson and Miss Frances Griffin, both of N. K. Street address, narrowly escaped death late Monday night when a large sedan in which they were riding, was struck by a backing freight car of the A. B. & C. railroad near the Jefferson street crossing and crushed against another freight car, according to police reports.

The injured trio were rushed to Davis-Fischer hospital in the private ambulance of Harry G. Poole. Parker suffered a fractured leg and other injuries, according to hospital attendants, while both young women were badly cut and bruised by flying glass.

CONVICT CREATES FUROR BY CALLING ON MRS. M'CORMICK

Chicago, October 17.—(AP)—Michael Hallack, who claims to have been recently released from the Lowa prison, created a furor at the Chicago home of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, while she was entertaining Prince William, of Sweden, at Hallack, carrying a steel, leather-covered cane, became violent, when refused admission by the attendants and the police were called. He told the police that Mrs. McCormick gave him an invitation to call at her home, when he was released. "I was working in the prison chair factory, when we met," he declared at the police station.

GRADY HEAD BACK, URGES PAYING WARD

Steve R. Johnston, superintendent of Grady hospital, returned to the city Monday after attending the National Hospital association meeting at Minneapolis, and urged city officials to inaugurate a pay ward at Grady hospital.

He pointed out that other municipal hospitals over the country are operating pay wards with success and are enlarging their services also. Grady hospital with only 500 beds is always crowded and enlargement of the capacity would be vital before the pay ward could be opened, he stated.
